March 17, 1909.

My dear Mr. Minister:

Governor Ide has been definitely selected for appointment as Minister to Spain and the President would like to send his nomination to the Senate as soon as possible.

May I therefore ask you to be good enough to ascertain by telegraph whether his appointment would be agreeable to your Government.

I am, my dear Señor Piña,

Very sincerely yours,

Señor Don Ramón Piña y Millet,

Minister of Spain.
