May 17, 1909.

My dear Mr. Minister:

My wife tells me that you were kind enough to offer to send us a Spanish servant whom you could recommend. I quite forgot the other day to thank you for your kindness and to accept the offer. If you will be so very kind as to send the man to our house, 1608 K Street, tomorrow or the next day at one-thirty I shall be very much obliged.

With kind regards, I am, my dear Mr. Piña,

Yours sincerely,

Walter P. Wilson

Señor Don Ramon Piña,

etc., etc., etc.,

Spanish Legation.
