

6-29-1909

Letter From Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson to May Burrough, June 29, 1909

Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw_other

 Part of the Diplomatic History Commons, Political History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Huntington-Wilson, Francis Mairs, "Letter From Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson to May Burrough, June 29, 1909" (1909). Other Correspondence. 137.

http://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw_other/137

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Assistant Secretary of State (1909-1913) at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Other Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.

Personal.

June 29, 1909.

My dear May:

Of course I should be most happy to do anything I could upon your request, but the young man to whom you refer has only been in this country a short time and has not even yet been naturalized, so that it strikes me as highly inappropriate that he should be thinking simultaneously of acquiring American citizenship and of entering the foreign service - the one career which would immediately take him out of his adopted country. In these circumstances it would be insincere for me to hold out to you any hope that this branch of the Government would be likely to find itself in a position to avail of his services.

It is very pleasant to hear news of you again. No, we were quite unaware that we had ever missed a call from you in New York.

With many kind regards to your mother and yourself, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Woodruff Wilson

Miss Burroughs,

53 East 30th Street,

New York City.

P.S. Please receive the machine.