COVER: Geburt- und Taufschein (Birth and Baptismal Certificate) of Joseph Hey, son of Philipp and Anna Maria (Gilbert) Hey, of Brunswick Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. Joseph Hey was born 17 December 1795 and was baptised 6 March 1796 by German Reformed Pastor Henrich Hertzell. Martin Werner and his wife acted as sponsors. In the script addendum of 1821 or later, we read that Joseph Hey was confirmed at age nineteen and that seven years later, on 27 March 1821, he was married to Anna Maria Schneiter by the Reverend Philip Meyer. The unidentified artist-scrivener has designed a red, black and gold unit where babbegoidistelfinks guard a red and black carefully lettered text; stylized pomegranates, tulips and hearts form top and bottom borders.

The scherenschnitte (scissor-cut design in white paper) was fashioned by an anonymous hand in the Pennsylvania Dutch Country about mid-nineteenth century, and is seen near the bottom of the front cover. In its wooden frame a dark blue background ordinarily shows through the perforations cut into the paper.

Introduction

This index is a continuation of the index to the first twenty-five volumes, and covers volumes 26-35 (1976-86) of Pennsylvania Folklife. Care has been taken to match the subject headings so that information can be found under the same topic in both editions. Once again, every article is indexed for the title, each author, and one or more subject headings.

There are two new features this time: an indication of article length by listing the first and last page, and mention of references for possible further study. Any article containing footnotes, endnotes, or a bibliography is indicated by the notation 'ref'. As before, the citation format is volume:issue:page.

The personal name index includes names as they appear in the genealogical articles of Folklife, and any spelling variations mentioned in the article are also listed in the index and cross references.

The Festival and its Sponsorship

The Kutztown Folk Festival is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Folklife Society, a nonprofit educational corporation affiliated with URSINUS COLLEGE, Collegeville, Pennsylvania. The Society's purposes are threefold: First, the demonstrating and displaying of the lore and folkways of the Pennsylvania Dutch through the annual Kutztown Folk Festival; second, the collecting, studying, archiving and publishing the lore of the Dutch Country and Pennsylvania through the publication of PENNSYLVANIA FOLKLIFE Magazine; and third, using the proceeds for scholarships and general educational purposes at URSINUS COLLEGE.
