HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES U. S.,

Washington, D. C., March 12 '97.

Gen. Horace Porter,

New York,

Dear Sir:

Mr. Huntington Wilson of Illinois is desirous of the post of second secretary of Embassy to Paris..

I have not had the advantage of personal acquaintance with Mr. Wilson, but he is the son of a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of Illinois, is a young gentleman of intelligence and pleasing address and has an honorable ambition in this matter that I trust will be regarded by you with favorable interest.

I am,

Very truly,

R. R. Hitt.
