FERDINAND W. PECK,
Auditorium Building,
Chicago.

March 13, 1897.

Hon. Wm. McKinley,
President of the United States,

My dear Mr. President:-

I gladly join with others in endorsing the character and fitness of Mr. Huntington Wilson for the position which he seeks, which I understand to be Second Secretary of the Legation at Paris. I have known his family intimately for a long period, and I believe the young man is <sup>a</sup> worthy son of his father and mother, who are respected by all in our community.

Respectfully yours,

Ferdiand W. Peck.
