WAR DEPARTMENT,
OPERATIONS DIVISION, GENERAL STAFF,
PERSONNEL BRANCH,
OFFICE OF PROCUREMENT SECTION,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

May 3, 1919.

Mr. Huntington Wilson,
The Lincoln,
13th & Locust St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

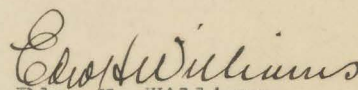

In reply to your letter of April 30, referring to papers filed by you with applications for appointment in the Army, you are informed that the letter from this office dated January 25, 1919, was written after search had been made in the office of The Adjutant General, The Judge Advocate General and in the Military Intelligence Division, General Staff.

With the exception of the letters returned to you by The Judge Advocate General, no documents of this nature have been discovered.

Respectfully,

P. P. Bishop,
Brigadier General, General Staff,
Chief, Personnel Branch,
Operations Division.

BY

Edw. H. Williams,
Lieut. Col., General Staff.
