Mrs. F. N. Huntington-Wilson
The Manor
Pinehurst, N.C.

Dear Mrs. Huntington-Wilson:

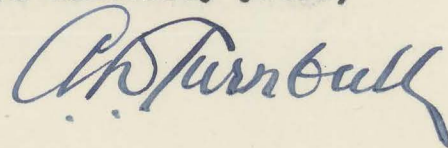

We are about to wind up the local affairs of the organization.

Before they close, I must ask you to accept my sincere thanks. Without the thought, time and energy that you gave, often at considerable inconvenience to yourself, our effort in Delray could not have been nearly as successful as it was. You were, I am sure, an inspiration to all the other workers.

This is not to overlook the fact that we were really working to further an idea that should properly be credited, in its inception, to your distinguished husband. That he may have no doubt on that point, will you be good enough to show him this letter ?

With renewed thanks to you both,

Always sincerely yours,

This, of course, is "official" - I don't have to tell you again,
personally,
how completely
I should have been sunk without you two.

Bob
