The Grizzly Details

Voting Day!

There are three proposals on the table for vote by the Assembly, regarding membership and meetings. The exact text of the ballot is on page two. These paper ballots will be anonymous and counted in public during the meeting by members of the Executive Committee. A big thanks to Margie Connor, who has volunteered to serve as the independent observer of the counting process.

For more information about how Staff Assembly conducts itself, its role at the College, and its governing rules, please take a look at the bylaws. "Amendments to the Bylaws must be approved by two-thirds of the members attending and voting," meaning only those attending the meeting may vote on these bylaws changes. The bylaws also state that any ratification must ultimately gain approval by the Board of Trustees to be enacted. Periodic review of the bylaws is expected of the Executive Committee.

An efficient timeline for the meeting will ensure that all business can be undertaken in an hour. Here is the agenda:

- Short introduction by Officers, announcement of scheduled election for Officers (5 minutes)
- Description of voting process, bylaws (10 minutes)
- Discussion of ballot initiatives (15 minutes max)
- Vote taken, counting (Estimated 15-20 minutes)
- Committee Reports (5 minutes)
- Other business, open forum

We thank you for your enthusiasm and for this upcoming discussion of the purpose and direction of Staff Assembly.
