DAD'S DAY

THIS publication takes pleasure in extending a hearty welcome to the fathers of Ursinus men and women. It is a rare privilege indeed to extend our sincerest greetings to those who have made possible the opportunities that surround us. We hope that you, too, may become aware of the manifold advantages that your sons and daughters enjoy.

We are also glad that you will have an opportunity to see our football team in action. We are justly proud of them, and those of you who have sons representing Ursinus on the athletic fields may rightly share this pride. Today’s game will be an example of the sportsmanship that permeates all our athletic encounters. In view of the fact that you are here watching them in battle we are especially anxious of winning, but whether we win or lose you are assured of a good game, and, what is far more important, the exemplification of a fighting spirit and real sportsmanship.

No doubt you already have a faint idea of the traditional Ursinus spirit, acquired through your sons and daughters, but it is our hope that this spirit will become a part of you as you witness our athletes in action. Again, we repeat, all Ursinus welcomes you and hopes that your day on the Ursinus campus may be complete.

THE CONFERENCE TO DATE

SEVERAL weeks ago we stated in an editorial in this column that “every team in the Conference has an even chance for the cup this year” and now that we are well in the midst of the tussle for the title let us look in retrospect and see just how the contenders are stacking up against each other.

Thus far Ursinus has met three of the Conference teams and has one tie, one victory and one defeat on its records.
All that the Bears could do in their opening Conference game with Dickinson was to knot the score at 7 all. However, we came back the following week and earned a hard-fought 7-0 victory over the F. & M. aggregation. Then, last week we tasted defeat for the first time at the hands of G-burg, bowing to them by the heart-breaking score of 13-12. This is the record of the Bears to date, and we may be definitely out of the Conference running, unless the powerful Gettysburg attack can be stopped by Dickinson and F. & M.

Otherwise there is little hope for even trying for honors.

The team that bids fair to annex the title at the time of this writing is Gettysburg, for they already have two major victories to their credit—the one over Ursinus and the 9-6 victory over Muhlenberg. It is generally conceded that F. & M., by virtue of her defeats at the hands of both Ursinus and the Muhlenberg Mules (14-3), is definitely out of the fight, although she has two more Conference games to play—one with Dickinson today and the other with Gettysburg on Thanksgiving day.

Up to this date Dickinson is still the dark horse, having met only one Conference team, Ursinus, and earning a 7-7 stalemate. However, after today’s game with Gettysburg we will know just what chances she has.

Although Muhlenberg dropped a close game to Gettysburg two weeks ago she came back last week and smothered F. & M.
by a 14-3 score which is indicative of the power that the Mules are capable of presenting.

In conclusion it might be said that unless Dickinson and F. & M. show unexpected strength it looks as though Gettysburg will be crowned Conference champs. Of course, in football, as in every other game, there is always that element of uncertainty and until the final whistle blows in the last Conference game anything is likely to happen. Until then, keep at it Bears; you already have a fine record.

HATS OFF TO THE FROSH!

FOR the first time in years Ursinus has a freshman foottball team of which they can well afford to be proud; for up to this date they have won every game and not once have their opponents been able to score on them. This fact in itself deserves comment because it is the first time in many a day that any freshman team at Ursinus has been able to boast such a record.

In another column of this issue there appears the record of Coach Paul’s team with the scores of each game. The record speaks for itself and proves their ability to work together as a unit and subordinate individual honors to the welfare of the team.

We want to congratulate Coach Paul for the fine team that he has placed on the field. He has proven himself as capable as a coach as he is as a football player. There is one more game on the Fresh schedule; that will be played at Wyoming Seminary next Saturday.

Best wishes for an undefeated season, Frosh!

Jovial Jing, these two words probably describe Russell "Jing" Johnson, our athletic director, better than a whole list of his many qualities and attributes. After only four years in his present capacity, director of athletics at Ursinus, he has many notable achievements to his credit and has attained widespread popularity. The fact that he is an alumnus of Ursinus and during his undergraduate days was an outstanding athlete are undoubtedly the two biggest reasons why the development of athletics at Ursinus under his guidance has been fruitful.

Jing's big game while in college was baseball, and in this sport he spent several years in the big leagues immediately following his graduation from Ursinus in 1916. He was with the Philadelphia Athletics for three years before taking up independent baseball and for the next seven years earned quite a reputation throughout the East as a pitcher; he was also employed in the chemical laboratories of the Bethlehem Steel Co., at this time. However, he could not resist the big leagues and spent two more years with the A's before retiring from active competition.

"Athletics for all" has been the policy to which Jing has consistently adhered and that is the reason why athletics occupy the important place that they do at Ursinus. His ideas of "fair play" and a "square deal" have been instilled into all our athletes as is evidenced by the fine sportsmanship that predominates. Ursinus followers owe much to this man and have every reason to look toward the future optimistically.

Above is Bob Bennett, three-year veteran from Kingston, Pa. Bob has been a mainstay at center.

Elmo Sommers (above) a local boy, is another Seniors. He is a scrappy guard.
Strong Units

of

Grizzly Defense

Hank Detwiler, at the right, will be another player missed by graduation. He plays a tackle position.

Ed Knudson (below) aggressive guard, is making a name for himself in his first year as a regular on the team. There’s plenty of pep in the line when he’s in the fray.

Sammy Levin, at the right, is one of the finest linemen Ursinus ever produced. Quiet and unassuming, he nevertheless is in the thick of the fight all the time.
To-day's Game—Ursinus vs. Muhlenberg

FIRST GAME IN 1906

TODAY'S game with Muhlenberg brings back memories of a long series of grid relations that began in 1906 and have been continued intermittently since that date. Today, more than ever before, both institutions pride themselves upon the display of fine sportsmanship that exists in all their athletic relationships and especially the friendliness of those existing between Muhlenberg and Ursinus. Looking over the 17 football encounters that we have engaged in to date we see many facts that are worthy of note.

In the first game, which was played in 1906, Ursinus got off to a good start and downed the Mules by a 35-5 score. However, history tells us that the Muhlenberg aggregation came back in 1907 and beat us to the tune of 13-6. But, considering the series as a whole, it is interesting to note that in only two games was either team defeated by a big margin; and each school has one such victory to its credit—Ursinus winning the 1908 contest by a 47-0 margin and Muhlenberg downing the Bears in 1921 by a 68-0 score.

Furthermore it might be of interest to note that, while each team won seven games and there have been three tie scores, the Mules amassed a total of 216 points to 166 for the Bears. Dividing the total number of points scored by each team by the number of games played, we find that the average score for each game was ten points for Ursinus and thirteen for Muhlenberg, which gives another slant on the closeness of the struggles. Then, too, the results of the past five games show that each team has given the other a good battle, for in no single instance did the winner prove itself better by more than one touchdown.

The importance of today's game becomes apparent when we consider that, besides affecting the Conference standing, it will give the winner the edge in the number of victories; for to date each team has been victorious the same number of times. In the light of these facts today's game becomes worth fighting for. Let's go, Bears!

That Edwin E. Kelly, captain of the Ursinus grid team in 1898 and co-captain in 1899, was the only man to captain an Ursinus football team twice.

That this same Kelly and C. Kopenhower, '00, hold the distinction of being the only co-captains ever to represent Ursinus.

That "Wheezu' Harvey used to be a model Freshman before turning "fire-chief" in his Sophomore year.

That Cliff Calvert can eat Rube Levin under the table any time and still call for more.

That Ossie Rinehart has to get two haircuts in the same day in order to show off his shapely dome.

That Ernest E. Quay, captain of the 1909 gridders, coached both Jack McAvoy and Horse Chase when they played on the Wyoming Seminary eleven.

That Matty Farais is a conniving politician instead of an ordinary ward heeler.

Special Note: Donald G. Breisch, tackle extraordinary, enjoyed a pleasant trip to Collegeville from the Gettysburg game in a de luxe roadster, accompanied by Misses So-and-So and Somebody-or-Other. They all attended a tea at Bird-in-Hand . . .

That Johnnie Grim uses a personal bodyguard when he scores touchdowns.

That Bob Benn-ett was the or-igin-ator of the mashed po-ta-toes joke.

Provide Kick for Muhlenberg Mule

This serious-minded young man is not a player. He is Johnny Utz, popular young coach of the Muhlenberg aggregation. Before coming to the Allentown institution in capacity of a tutor, Utz was an outstanding griddler at the University of Pennsylvania. From the results he is obtaining as a mentor, many claim that he is proving himself even a better coach than he was a player.

Posed above is Al Klotz, a guard. He is a product of the coal regions, having gained his football experience at Forty Fort High School, in the Wyoming Valley.

Perhaps the man to be most feared by the Bears today is the gentleman pictured above. He is Al Weiner, quarterback for the Mules and a constant threat.

No. 32 is Max Levine, who will be seen playing in the center position today.
The Captains of Our Team

Present Activity of Former Footballers Quite Varied

WHEN one glances through the football records of the past, his mind is apt to wander to the thought of: “What happens to football men after their college days?” Below is listed the names of Ursinus football captains from 1897 to the present day. The writer, in inquiring from a few of the old timers, seemed to note that in after life the college football player was not limited to a narrow scope of activity. On the contrary, the football captains of other years are at present engaged in a wide variety of pursuits.

Coaches, lawyers, doctors, preachers, and teachers are perhaps the most common pursuits of the captains of yore. It is quite a coincidence that one of the captains back farthest of whom we have record and the most recent ex-captain are both located at present in Collegeville. Dr. Lentz, captain of the 1901 team, is pastor in the Trinity Reformed Church here. The captain of the 1932 aggregation, Alvin Paul, is now coach of freshman athletics at the College.

It would naturally be expected that those who were athletics’ leaders in their undergraduate days would later be teachers of the game for others. This is so. Most familiar to us in this category, perhaps, is Ronald C. Kichline, captain of the 1915 team (the team that defeated the Navy), who terminated his coaching career at Ursinus with a Conference championship in 1930. Ralph Mitterling, only one year Kichline’s predecessor in the captaincy role, is now coach of baseball and football at E. Stroudsburg State Teacher’s College. At another state teacher’s college, Slippery Rock, is found the captain of the 1911 team, N. Kerr Thompson. No doubt these men teaching football today are finding the modern game quite changed from the game they encountered in their college days.

Ernest E. Quay, captain of the 1909 team, is worthy of note for several reasons. Not only was he one of the best football players ever to represent Ursinus, but he was perhaps Ursinus’ most representative “All-American”. Mr. Quay is now connected with Wyoming Seminary in Kingston, Pa. But, that’s not all. The same man now has a son in the class of 1937 at Ursinus!

Perhaps one may not be particularly impressed when he has learned what actually happens to football luminaries in after life. But, with a second thought, the proper conclusion should be that it does not vitally affect the intended life work of the individual. However it does make him better fitted for his life work, and a better man for having played the game.
The captains of Ursinus football teams since 1897 and their present day vocations are, as follows:

1898—Edward E. Kelly. A lawyer in Los Angeles, Cal.
1899—Edward E. Kelly. A lawyer in Los Angeles, Cal.
1901—John Lentz. Pastor of the Trinity Reformed Church in Collegeville.
1907—Ira J. Hain. M. D. in Reading, Pa.
1911—N. Kerr Thompson. Coaching at Slippery Rock State Teacher’s College.
1913—Ray Seaman. Engaged in the banking business.
1914—Ralph Mitterling. Coach of baseball and football at E. Stroudsburg S. T. C.
1915—Ronald C. Kichline. In the insurance business in Philadelphia. (See advertisement page 10) 1919—B. M. Light. Teaching.
1923—Edwin N. Faye. Minister in Norristown.
1924—Francis Evans. Employed by the Bell Tel. Co. of Del.
1925—Charles Hunsicker.
1926—Stanley Moyer. Teaching.
1927—Ray Schell. Coaching at Bloomsburg S. T. C.
1928—Merritt Jeffers. Attending Lancaster Theological Seminary.
1930—George McBeth. A dental student at Temple University.
1931—Harry A. Miller. Playing professional football with the Frankford Legion.
1933—Walter Tropp.

Stories They Love To Tell

Russell C. "Jing" Johnson

"See those sticks over there?" responded the manager, pointing to the bat pile. "Well, you just take one of them, walk up to the plate, and when the pitcher starts to wind up, then you start swinging. Don't forget, don't stand there! Swing!

The lad carefully followed the directions of his new boss. He started swinging in plenty of time for the first pitch and missed the ball by a yard. Undaunted, he took a terrific cut at the next pitch, and by some miracle connected with it. The horsehide rode high, wide and handsome over the left field fence. Mr. Cornhoer stood motionless, gaping open-mouthed at the disappearing ball.

"Run, run, run!" pleaded the whole team, rushing out to the farmer lad. "Why don't you run?"

"Huh-uh," replied the astonished batsman. "Nup, I'd rather buy 'em a new ball."

Oh well! Maybe you'll believe this one:

"Sparky" Washington was a most proficient umpire in the Darktown League. He always started the games on time and dusted the plate very carefully, but he had one bad point. His decisions were not always perfectly clear to players as well as the fans.

One day he had particular difficulty in making the batter understand his interpretations. A fast ball had just cut the heart of the plate.

"One," called Sparky.

"One what, boss?" inquired the big black batter.

"One strike," retorted Sparky, disgusted at the batter's lack of intelligence. Came the next pitch.

"Two," yelled the umpire.

"Two what?"

"Too high, man, too high." Sparky was getting sore. Finally the count became three balls and two strikes. The next pitch was a foot over the batter's head.

"Yer out," shouted the umpire.

"Out," exploded the batter, "out where? Why that pitch was way over mah head. Whaddya mean, out?"

"I said out! Out of the game until I find a place to put ya. Can't ya see the bases are full?"

The first inter-collegiate game of football was played between Rutgers and Princeton in 1869.

In 1899 Sewanee played five games in five successive days without being scored on, defeating Texas, Texas A. & M., Tulane, Louisiana Southern and Ole Miss.

Jim Thorpe, of Carlisle, scored 188 points in 1912, the highest individual total on record. He scored 22 of these in the Indians' 34 to 14 victory over Lehigh. Thorpe made 26 touchdowns in that season, John Leech, of V. M. I., scored 26 touchdowns in 1920.

Notre Dame made 146 substitutions against the Navy in 1930, winning 26 to 2.

Georgia Tech made 22 first downs to Alabama's none, yet the game ended in a scoreless tie.

The 1933 Frosh Team
Unusual Record Amassed by Cub Team

Hats off to the Frosh!
For the 1933 edition of the Grizzly Cubs is probably the most successful freshman team seen about Collegeville for many years. Three victories, no defeats, forty points scored, and a goose egg for their rivals are the accomplishments of "Swede" Paul's hard-fighting yearling outfit.

A wealth of football material abounds in the class of '37, while an equal amount of wealth of football genius abounds in Coach Paul. These two "wealthy elements" have collaborated excellently to produce this A-1 grid team. On October 14 the little Bears opened the season's activities at Pennsburg by bowling over Perkiomen Prep., 12-0. The Cubs smothered their opponents under an avalanche of first downs.

Two weeks later the yearlings played the Drexel Frosh at Philadelphia. Here again the Cubs proved superior, subduing the Dragonettes with a 19-0 score.

The protégés of Coach Paul reached the height of their current success last Saturday when they trounced the highly touted National Farm School eleven, 9-0. Farm School's undefeated record of four years' standing was swept aside in that game, and it also marks the first time in eight years that Coach Samuel's gridders were kept from the scoring column. A game with Wyoming Seminary, scheduled for November 18, yet remains on the Frosh schedule.

It may be interesting to note that one individual has scored all of the Cubs' six touchdowns they have registered so far this season. He is Andy Jakomas, of McKeesport High, a shifty, elusive halfback. The two extra points were recorded off the toe of Bonkoski, heady yearling quarterback from Conshohocken.

The other two points came as a result of the safety scored in the Farm School game.

The manner in which the Frosh team has performed this season gives us bright hopes for the future. The 1934 varsity team should see many of these boys' faces in the lineup, or we miss our guess.

The Frosh Record Thus Far
(All games are played away)

October 14 — Ursinus Freshmen 12 — Perkiomen 0

Perseverance Conquers All

BY HENRY AUSTIN

Genius, that power which dazzles mortal eyes,
Is oft but perseverance in disguise;
Continuous effort, of itself, implies
In spite of countless falls the power to rise.
'Twixt failure and success the point's so fine
Men sometimes know not when they touch the line.
Just when the pearl was waiting one more plunge,
How many a struggler has thrown up the sponge!
As the tide goes out, it comes clear in;
In business 'tis at turns the wisest win.
And oh! how true, when shades of doubt dismay,
"'Tis often darkest just before the day."
A little more persistence, courage, vim!
Success will dawn o'er fortune's cloudy rim.
Then take this honey from the bitterest cup:
"There is no failure save in giving up,
No real fall as long as one still tries,
For seeming setbacks make the strong man wise.
There's no defeat, in truth, save from within;
Unless you're beaten there, you're bound to win."
