

3-27-1897

Letter From Robert T. Lincoln to William McKinley, March 27, 1897

Robert Todd Lincoln

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw\_early\_career

Part of the Diplomatic History Commons, Political History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

---

Recommended Citation

Lincoln, Robert Todd, "Letter From Robert T. Lincoln to William McKinley, March 27, 1897" (1897). Early Career Documents. 9.

https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw\_early\_career/9

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the American Legation in Japan to 1905 at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Early Career Documents by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.

THE TEMPLE, CHICAGO.

March 27, 1897.

Mr. President:

I have the honor to commend to your favorable consideration for an appointment as Secretary at some post in our diplomatic service, Mr. Huntington Wilson of Chicago. Mr. Wilson is just about to be graduated from Yale College and is a young gentleman of exceptional ability and culture and has a commendable ambition to enter that branch of the public service as a career; he is the son and grandson of old friends of mine here and I am sure that he will do credit to both the names he bears.

His present attainments and aptness in foreign languages add very much to his other qualifications.

Believe me,

Mr. President,

Very sincerely yours,

Robert T. Lincoln.