Staff Assembly Campus Talks
Every other Friday from 12:00 – 2:00 p.m.
in the Faculty/Staff Dining Room

Engage in informal discussions with faculty and staff about topics related to communication and working together.

February 22 – How to Unplug

Facilitators: Kristin Maag & James Tiggett

Facilitators will discuss ideas on how to get the most out of stepping away from technology use from time to time, tools and techniques to assist, and the benefits that follow.

March 8: Peer Mentoring

Facilitators: Heather Lobban-Viravong and Christine Iannicelli

What are the benefits of having a mentor? What are the benefits of mentoring others? Who have your mentors been? What are the opportunities available to faculty and staff to find peer mentors both at and outside Ursinus?

March 22: Project Management

Facilitator: Greg Skinner

What is project management? How do you know if you're a project manager? How do you successfully manage a team and a project from formation to completion?

April 19: Universal Design

Facilitators: Shammah Bermudez and Christine Iannicelli

What is universal design and why is it important? How can you use universal design principles in everything you do to champion inclusivity and accessibility?

May 3: Communication Skills

Facilitators: Members of the Spring 2019 Staff Assembly Learning Circles

Facilitators will lead discussion on how to communicate effectively and share insights they learned from reading the books Conversations that Get Results and Inspire Collaboration and The Assertiveness Workbook

Seeking Diversity Committee Representative

We look to identify Staff that are interested in being an integral voice in the continual improvement of inclusiveness and diversity within our college community. We seek out others who are passionate about the importance of diversity and inclusion. People who are concerned with the perspectives and experiences of all members and constituents of Ursinus College. Consider sending an email to the Staff Assembly leadership for volunteers or nominees who wish to facilitate change. The Diversity Committee is a college committee. Staff Assembly is charged with the responsibility of providing an elected representative to this group.

Benefits/Highlights

- Create an atmosphere of sensitivity and inclusion.
- Cultivate an attitude of respect and dignity in the workplace.
- Continue to evaluate the performance and results achieved.
- Develop new paths of engagement concerning all facets of diversity at Ursinus.
- Reward and recognize diversity successes and achievements.

How often we meet: Once every 2 weeks. Subject to change based on crises or emergency.

Duties: Usually advisory and discussion based conversation, development of policies and guidelines, coordination with other campus groups or members, and Reporting/Liason to Staff Assembly.

Term: 3 years, staggered, with one member elected each year.
