August 5, 1940.

Wilbur Forrest, Esq.,

Editor of the New York Herald-Tribune,

230, West 41st St., New York City.

Dear Mr. Forrest,

To my mind the enclosure is important and urgent. If you agree at all, I do hope you will put it in as a letter to the editor. I don't see how we can get anywhere without leadership, or how we can get leadership except in the suggested way.

Nothing would slow up Japan so much, in my opinion, as frank cooperation of the English-speaking peoples. It is a pity that nearly every one forgets that Washington said (Farewell Address), "We may safely trust to temporary alliances in extraordinary emergencies".

With best regards, and very pleasant recollections of our chat the other day, I am

Very sincerely yours,
