JOHN J. PERSHING
WASHINGTON

August 14, 1940.

Mr. F. M. Huntington-Wilson,
Hopelands,
Woodbury, Connecticut.

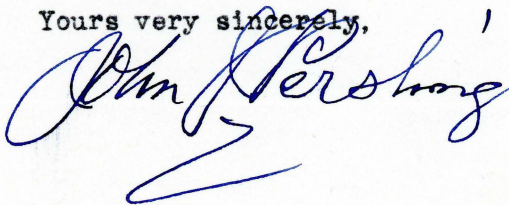

My dear Wilson:

It was fine to have a word from you after all these years, and I appreciate very much your cordial letter of congratulations on my recent radio talk.

I am glad to have your indorsement of my views. The mail the broadcast has brought me indicates that our people are preponderantly in favor of the proposal, and we can only hope that something will come of it. But I am not optimistic.

Trusting that this will find you well and enjoying life, and with kindest personal regards, I am,

Yours very sincerely,
