COMMITTEE ON RULES.

April 17, 1920.

Mr. Huntington Wilson. 2 Dickinson Street, Princeton. N.J.

My dear Wilson:

I received your letter just as Barney and I were about to take the train for Valley Forge for a few days' rest, and while there we all read "Who is the King of Glory" with great interest.

I thank you very much for the copy of the NEW EUROPE. I had already seen it. Ira Bennett of the POST was kind enough to send it to me several weeks ago.

I have had some correspondence with Phillips and have given him some information that he desired at first hand.

We have had a very tough winter here and I was very ill with laryngitis a couple of weeks ago and am still guite weak from its effects. To cap the climax, last week Mrs. Knox had a bad spell of ptomaine and had to go to bed but is now up and about. On top of that poor old Bradley broke down and had to be laid up for six weeks, and although he is now at the house, his condition is such that

I do not allow him to go off of the first floor. I think the climb to my floor which he made so many times a day and so many times that were unnecessary, out of a desire to be useful, pretty nearly got him.

But things are looking better now. I shall hope to be able to have you come down before we go to Valley Forge.

Very sincerely yours,

Whing
