March 25, 1909.

My dear Sir:

Pray accept my thanks for your kind congratulations upon my appointment to my present post.

With reference to your question about the hardwood industry in the Philippine Islands, I can only suggest that you address the Bureau of Insular Affairs, War Department, Washington as the Government office which might be able to furnish you with the information you desire.

Yours faithfully,

Walter J. Nelson

N. W. VanCleve, Esquire,
No. 320 Burke Building,
Seattle, Washington.
