March 30, 1909.

Dear Dr. MacCauley:

The President's Secretary, Mr. Carpenter, says that if you will call at the Executive Office at one o'clock next Saturday, he will be very glad to arrange for you to see the President. Could you let me know if you can be there at that hour, so that I can inform the White House?

If you will come to the Department at half past twelve of that day and go over from here, I would be very glad to have a chat with you.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in brown ink, which appears to be "Woodrow Wilson". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned to the right of the typed name.

Dr. Clay MacCauley,
