In Memoriam

It is with deep regret that the Journal records the loss of several alumni and former students in the war. We extend sincerest sympathy to the families and friends of David Edmonds ex '42, John S. Little ex '43, Wilmer E. Knight '41, Henry C. Turner, ex '46, and Roy F. Walz ex '45. These men have paid the greatest price of all that we may continue to live in a country where freedom and democracy prevail. Each of us has a great responsibility to rededicate our ideals and actions so that these sacrifices shall not have been in vain.

In Appreciation

To Charles H. Miller, who has resigned the position of Alumni Secretary, the Journal expresses grateful thanks for all he has done. He was most successful in that position, and because of his untiring efforts, the Alumni Association has attained the best position it has ever enjoyed both in numbers of members and in financial standing. On the Journal committee, too, his help was invaluable and will be sorely missed.

Many thanks, Mr. Miller!

Education for Peace

During the first World War, we promised ourselves that a similar debacle should not occur again, and some noble attempts were made toward that end. Yet we are only too painfully aware that those attempts were not noble enough, or our convictions strong enough to overcome the opposing forces, and we are again participating in world conflict.

Have we considered carefully enough what our educational systems might do in averting wars in the future? A knowledge of history, which so clearly points out the uselessness and waste of war, apparently is not enough to give the idea the impetus it needs.

Germany made use of its educational system in this way, but toward an evil, not a good end. Why may not all the countries of the world use theirs to teach to the children at various age levels that was is unnecessary, that peaceful means can be found to settle international differences?

Those who will work out the terms of peace after the war, and perhaps establish some type of international organization, might include as a primary factor some plan of education to be put into effect everywhere which would build up ideas and attitudes that will eventually lead to the elimination of war. Such a plan of compulsory education could be worked out on an international scale in the same way that we now require the teaching of civics or hygiene or American history in our own schools.

The Journal Congratulates

—1st Sgt. Austin Gavin '30, Lt. Cmdr. Norris A. Johnson '36, and Capt. Frank B. Reynolds '37, upon receiving various honors and awards in recognition of unusually fine or brave services they have performed.

—the A. A. U. P. chapter on the campus, and its president, Dr. Harvey L. Carter. We are glad to see any group at the College associate with similar groups of a larger area or of national significance, and an active organization of this kind should do much to stimulate the faculty to a greater usefulness to the College.

Become a Life Member

You who are members of the Alumni Association undoubtedly know that when you have paid in dues totaling forty dollars, you automatically become life members. We presume that all of you have every intention of continuing your membership, so that eventually you will have reached the point where you are a paid-up life member.

Why not consider seriously the idea of paying in advance the entire sum you still owe to bring your payments to the required total, eliminating the necessity of yearly payments? Perhaps one of your war bonds could be marked for just this purpose.

Mrs. Leighton K. Smith, the new alumni secretary, can tell you how your account stands and how much you will need to pay to become a life member.

For American colleges and universities these are difficult and critical years. Many of the best colleges have today only a handful of students. Many a college has retained the services of only a small part of the Faculty and has modified the curricula to serve new and temporary needs. Many a college has begun to accumulate deficits that may seriously impair its usefulness in the years ahead.

Ursinus College has been able to avoid these misfortunes. We have been able to continue our normal work, and in doing so we are making the largest positive contribution that a liberal arts college can make. During the twelve months that ended on June 30 more students than ever before were enrolled. Our Faculty has been retained at full strength. The help of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the gifts of alumni and friends have enabled us to end the year without a deficit, to continue the steady reduction of the funded debt, and to increase our endowment funds and building funds. For all this I am sure that the alumni are thankful, and the Board of Directors, Faculty, and students are grateful to all those alumni who have helped in so many ways to make this year a successful year.

The contributions of the alumni to the Loyalty Fund have been this year more generous than ever before. Gifts and bequests received during the fiscal year that ended on June 30 reached a total of $40,000. In addition, during the year we have received from alumni and friends pledges of more than $30,000.

During the past two years we have received from the Educational Emergency Campaign, conducted in the synods east of Ohio, a total of some $12,000. Two years ago the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church made the first appropriation to Ursinus College in our history—$1,500 over a two-year period. This was later increased slightly. On June 28, 1944 the General Synod increased the appropriation to $30,000 over the next three years. This action, so helpful to the College in a critical period, will enable us to increase the value and extent of our service to the people of the Church.

Funds for the erection of the women’s residence halls continue to grow. On June 24 eleven members of the Board of Directors pledged a total of $27,000, of which a large part is earmarked for this purpose. The Board’s decision to name one of these halls in honor of Dr. Paisley and another in honor of Dean Kline will, I know, have the enthusiastic approval of all alumni who are familiar with the history of Ursinus.

Our plans for the seventy-fifth anniversary of the opening of Ursinus College, to be celebrated in September, 1945, were outlined in the March number of The Alumni Journal. We are proceeding with the general plans, but for the present the Board of Directors is giving particular attention to increasing the Anniversary Fund to the desired total of $150,000. In shaping these plans, we shall, of course, welcome the suggestions of the alumni; and, in completing the Anniversary Fund, we shall, of course, depend upon your generous help.

N. E. McClure.
OUR WAR CORRESPONDENTS

April 15, 1944

"Haven't dropped you a line in a long while, I know. This terrible business over here seems to take more and more of one's time; often even to 24 and 48 hour periods without sleep and little time for eating during those periods. Letters, consequently, have little time or space in such a wartime schedule.

"We're now taking a few days of well-earned rest after sluging it out with the enemy on the Cassino front. It's really been a gruelling chase all the way from Naples and one which has taught us many things—the hard way! We have found, contrary to reports from here and the homefront, that we are up against a clever, stubborn, strong enemy who isn't going to be defeated overnite or by cleverly worded phrases in our newspapers at home. Action, both here and on the homefront, only will bring victory.

"Spring has come at last with all its natural beauties and I hope we've left the winter rain and mud for months. This country, except for the scars of war, is very beautiful in a primitive sort of way.

"Will you notify the College publications of my change of address? I look forward to the various bulletins. I also made out an allotment for a bond which will come to you directly from Washington. It's for the Loyalty Fund."—Lt. L. Montgomery Weidner '36, somewhere in Italy

May 2, 1944

"I'm in England. I've been here a little over two months. And I've only been mildly surprised at the country and its people. They're not really different at all—just British.

"I'm very fortunate to have attended Ursinus College. Everybody feels a warm attachment for his own school, of course. But I am glad it was Ursinus, somehow, and not a university lost in a city. Three years there left its imprint upon me. And now that my home is so much more distant, things like Ursinus and the America I knew there stand out with surprising clarity. We're always comparing here. There's not a Yank who hasn't a well defined opinion of England as compared with the States. Usually he doesn't hide his opinions under a bushel either! All of which makes things nice and warm, of course."—Lt. Louis A. Krug '37, somewhere in England.

"The papers and bulletins are a never-ending source of interest to me and probably the best means of keeping track of people these days that I know of.

"The more I see of the Navy, the more enthusiastic I am about it. The work is terrifically interesting and every day there is something new which really keeps you on your toes. I happened to land the job of Communications Officer for which I am very grateful. You get a pretty good overall picture of the Navy from an Inspection Office, and judging from the work and the people here, I can't help but think that I pulled the plum right out of the Christmas pie."—Ens. Joyce L. Tuers '42, New York.

"Your letter of December 1, 1943 and copy of the Alumni Journal arrived at my tent February 20, 1944. Slightly late with the Christmas wishes, but the thought was appreciated just the same. I am intrigued by your sentence: Please write when you have time, telling us about your experiences, your reactions and about anything else you have on your mind. Are you kidding? What about the censor? I've plenty of troubles without getting the censor on my trail. I can say that I liked the Journal and wish that there would not be such a great time lag between the arrival of issues.

"On April 6 I returned to duty here after a fifteen day leave, during which time I toured as far south as Melbourne, Australia. In our branch of the service we are allowed 15-day leave for each 6 months' duty in the combat area. The time passes very slowly when you stop to figure that with the present system of rotation of personnel everyone served over 2 years before return to the States.

"I've had several notes from President McClure and am looking forward eagerly to the time when I will be able to return to the campus—on a visit I mean."—Lt. Col. L. O. Yost '17, somewhere in New Guinea.

"Greetings! And to whoever was responsible for sending the pages of the Spring Alumni Journal, thanks. The Journal is looking up. I like its format and print job. 'Our War Correspondents' is a good department. Apparently the alumni in the services like it. We like to hear about old friends, where they are and what they are doing. It's one of the few links with a past life.

"I recently received a message from Charles H. Miller urging me to be at this year's alumni reunion. 'Lord, Lord, they still don't know back home that there's a war on,' I thought to myself, tethered over here in North Africa.

"The fact is that I have been increasingly disturbed by mounting evidence that people at home are not really in the war. Major 'Reds' Diskan voices the feeling in the spring number. Worried about the 'old country?' You people at home have a great responsibility, he says.

"Many of us overseas know that we must not return to the America of before the war—we must not 'get back to normalcy'—when this war ends. The old world was no good. It brought Hitler and it brought Pearl Harbor. Destroying Hitler and avenging Pearl Harbor will not make the world right. After these are done we cannot go back to where we left off before the war started.

"Do the people at home know all this? Some of them do, of course. But the people as a whole, do they know why this war is being fought?

"I'm not prepared to discuss how the post-war world must be built. All I know is that there's not enough unity at home, not enough personal determination to do as much as possible to win the war. There is too much selfishness, too much bickering, too much short-sighted greed. There is too much luxury as usual—too much emphasis on trying to fight the war without too much sacrifice.

"This is all very well. But I feel that the home front is not sharing the burden with the soldiers in the field. I think our people are not learning what the people of Britain and Russia are learning in this war. These people know there's a war going on. Do ours? These people will bring to the making of the peace a knowledge that, as things stand now, our people do not have. How can we stand with them in the making of a better world?"
"Like 'Reds' Diskan, I have much time to think about these things. There are other men, probably including Diskan, who are fighting and suffering much. Will they have to win the peace, too?"—Lt. Vernon Groff '38, on Foreign Duty.

"Upon arriving home from my last trip, I was pleased to find the Alumni Journal in my mailbox. It was most interesting to read the letters from Alumni who are scattered all over the face of the earth. Having been to many of those places, both before and during the war, I can readily appreciate the circumstances of their present situations.

"Noting that many alumni give Fleet Post Office, San Francisco as their address, please pass the word along through the Journal that my trips usually take me to all Pacific stations for Pan American Airways and the Naval Transport Service about once or twice a month; and that I would be pleased to see any Ursinus alumni who happen to be stationed at these bases. Mail will reach me if sent either to 109 Pepper Ave., Burlingame, Calif., or NATS-PAC, Navy Bomber 29, c/o Fleet P. O., San Francisco."—Lt. James M. Wharton '34

"We have a pretty thorough course here and should know something about Asia by the time we are finished. Our main course is, of course, the Chinese language. We are expected to be fluent by the time we finish the course and from all appearances we may be. This is our last scheduled term but most of us are fairly fluent now and we expect to make a lot of progress during the end of this term. We will probably know at least two thousand characters by the end of this term. The rest of our course consists of a rather detailed study of the geography, anthropology, history, and political science of the various countries of Asia from India to Japan. The amount of memorizing that the Chinese language requires is often oppressing but for all of it I find being able to work and associate with such a brilliant group of students as we have here a real pleasure."—Pfc. John W. Brunner ex '46, University of California.

"I rather miss Ursinus, particularly during the off-duty hours when there is little to occupy the mind but retrospection. It epitomizes for me all of the things worthwhile; the principles for which we are reputedly fighting, the qualities, moral and physical, which make us as a nation and as individuals different from any other folk group in the world. Believe me, we are different; the basic cleanliness and idealism of American youth, the high standards of morality which precept has set up in them, the development rather than the subjugation of individuality; all of these things are realized anew in remembering Ursinus and evaluating for what they are, the basis for sound, wholesome lives."—Lt. John D. McAllister ex '41, on foreign duty.

"Thank you for the Alumni Journal. Be assured it was appreciated and enjoyed. Disappointed to learn 'Jing' Johnson left the college. It will hardly be the same coming back to the school without seeing him. Saw John Grimm sometime ago. We had quite a talk about old college friends. Am well and find the Navy quite excellent duty. However, it will be nice to get home again and see trees without coconuts dangling from them."—Lt. Harold A. Beyer '36, somewhere in the Pacific.

"Received your letter telling me of Alumni Day. I am extremely sorry I can't make it, but my thoughts will be there. No doubt there are many in my position where it is entirely impossible to get there. I can assure you, however, it will be a great day when I can visit the campus again. I have been here in the South Pacific for a year and a half, and have seen numerous places—some of which I can mention. At one time or another I have been in Australia, New Guinea and Cape Gloucester, New Britain."—1st Lt. William J. Selfridge '42, with the Marines in the Pacific.

Alumni Secretary Resigns

Charles H. Miller '24 has resigned his position as Secretary and Treasurer of the General Alumni Association. The resignation was received by the Executive Committee at a special meeting held on Alumni Day.

Mr. Miller gave as the reason for his resignation, the "press of duties at the College Library."

Mr. Miller has been Secretary of the Association for over two years, during which time the active membership of the Association has been increased from one-third to one-half of the entire Alumni body. During his tenure, the balance in the treasury has risen from practically nothing to well over $1,200. Mr. Miller has always discharged his duties with fidelity and with the best interest of the College at heart.

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association held on June 24, a suitable resolution was passed unanimously expressing the regret of the Association at Mr. Miller's resignation and expressing appreciation for his services in the past. He likewise resigned as a member of the editorial committee of the Alumni Journal.

Mrs. Leighton K. Smith Elected to Fill Vacancy

Mrs. Leighton K. (Miriam Barnet) Smith '14 has been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles H. Miller.

She is a native of Reading and received her Master's Degree at the University of Pennsylvania and did graduate work at Cornell, Columbia and Wisconsin. Prior to her marriage she taught in public schools of Leesburg, N. J., Palmerton, Chester and Allen... Town. She now resides in Collegeville.

For many years Mrs. Smith has been active in the Ursinus Woman's Club, the Alumni Association, and for several years has been a member of the editorial committee of the Alumni Journal.

The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association has adopted a policy calculated to increase the scope and effectiveness of the Association and will endeavor to keep in close touch with the alumni and former students who are members of the armed forces.
74th ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

The 74th annual commencement exercises, which were held in Bomberger Hall on June 26, featured an address by Dr. George William McClelland, provost and president-elect of the University of Pennsylvania. Basing his remarks on a passage from Robert Browning, "Have you yourself what's best for man?" Dr. McClelland paid high tribute to the work of Ursinus College and challenged the graduates "to develop those qualities of personality and character that are so important when crises come."

Of the 52 members of the graduating class, 32 were awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and 20 received the Bachelor of Science degree. Thomas George Schonfeld, a refugee student from Austria, was valedictorian; and Evan Samuel Snyder, of Lehighton, Pa., was salutatorian of the class. Cum Laude honors were awarded to Joyce Jean Behler, Palmerton, Pa., Barbara Ann Cooke, Newtown, Pa., Helen Roseanne Dean, East Greenville, Pa., Emily Sarah Greenawald, South Temple, Pa., Martha Lois Hess, Collegeville, Pa., Betty Ann Kirlin, Miami, Fla., Jeanne Wischman Mathieu, Trappe, Pa., Emma Jane Thomas, York, Pa., Loraine Evelyn Walton, Dover, Pa., and Beatrice Martha Weaver, Bethlehem, Pa. 58 men from the Navy V-12 unit received certificates for work completed. These certificates were presented by Lt. Gorge D. Miner, commanding officer. All of the Navy men received transfer orders of which over fifteen thousand were received during the past year, of which over fifteen thousand were made to the Loyalty Fund by alumni.

Eleven members of the Board pledged $27,000 toward the 75th Anniversary Fund. Most of this amount has been designated for use in erecting the new men's buildings, one of which will be named in honor of Dr. Harry E. Paisley, the president of the Board, and a member since 1907, and another will be named for Dean Whorten A. Kline, who has been associated with the College for more than 53 years.

They likewise approved a number of faculty advancements and appointments. Dr. Donald G. Baker, Dr. George W. Hartzell, and Dr. Calvin D. Yost, Jr., have been advanced from associate professor to professor. Advanced from assistant to associate professor are Dr. Paul R. Wagner, Dr. Eugene H. Miller, Mr. William S. Pettit, and Mr. Everett M. Bailey. Evan Snyder, salutatorian of the graduating class of this year, has been appointed an assistant in physics.

Miss Inge Benda, a graduate of the February class, and Miss Mary Jane Lytle, of the June class, have been appointed assistants in German.

The administrative officers reported the sale of Highland Hall in Trappe, which, because of its location, is not desirable as a dormitory for either men or women students.

Chester Robbins '13, who was elected last year to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. Charles B. Heinly as one of the alumni directors, was re-elected to serve a five-year term upon the nomination of the Alumni Association.

All officers of the corporation were re-elected for the coming year, and in addition, Stanley Omwake, '31, who has been in charge of the Treasurer's Office for the past two years, was elected Assistant Treasurer.

Woman's Club Meeting

About fifty members of the Ursinus Woman's Club met in Bomberger Hall at 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 24, for their annual meeting. Rebecca W. Price '31, president, was in charge of the meeting. Reports of the various officers were heard. The President announced that eighty members had attended the luncheon, card party and fashion show held in Strawbridge and Clothier's on April 29, Mrs. D. L. Helfferich, who was responsible for contacts with this year's graduating class, reported that twelve of this group had signed their desire to become members of the Club.

It was voted to continue for another year the $300 scholarship given by the Woman's Club, and awarded by the Scholarship Committee of the College each year. The present holder of the grant is Anne Styer, a member of the junior class. It was also voted to continue next year the $20 prize in athletics made annually at Commencement time.

Miss Price then read her letter to the members, which is published elsewhere in this issue of the Journal, concerning the desirability of continuing the Club as a separate alumni organization. Considerable discussion followed, and it was voted that the President should have the power to appoint a committee to consider carefully the question which had been raised, the report of the committee to be presented to the Club for action at its next meeting.

Meeting was adjourned, and the group went to Freeland Hall dining room where a buffet luncheon was served.

Alumni Association Reelects "Jing" Johnson

Russell C. "Jing" Johnson '16 has been re-elected president of the Alumni Association, it was announced at the annual meeting of the Alumni Association.

Alfred C. Alspsach '33 presided in the absence of Russell C. Johnson '16. Mr. Johnson was unable to attend the afternoon session because of prior business commitments.

The Rev. Henry G. Maeder '10 of Philadelphia gave the invocation. Carol C. Hansen '43 was named temporary secretary for this meeting. Mrs. Miller read a brief synopsis of the minutes of the last annual meeting and of the Executive Committee meetings, and the Treasurer's report which showed a healthy balance of $1,281 after all bills were paid.

The chairman appointed F. I. Sheeder '22 and J. Harold Brownback '21 as Auditing Committee to audit the books of the Treasurer.

Dr. Ernest C. Wagner '18 offered a resolution of regret over Charles H. Miller's decision to withdraw as Secretary-Treasurer of the Alumni Association and presented a resolution of appreciation for his unfailing and conscientious work during his tenure in office. This motion was unanimously adopted.

Reports were received from the Ursinus Woman's Club and the Board of Directors of the College. Dr. Charles D. Mattern '30, presented the report of the Election Board and stated that the following officers have been elected for the ensuing year: President, Russell C. Johnson '16 to succeed himself; Vice-President, Helen M. Ferree '14; Secretary-Treasurer, Charles H. Miller '24. Elected to the Executive Committee, from the faculty were Franklin I. Sheeder '22 and Eugene B. Michael '24; from the General Association, Ernest C. Wagner '10, Elfi Brant Evans '18, Alfred C. Alspsach '33, Alexander R. Clason '36, and Mabel B. Ditter '39. He likewise announced the nomination of Chester Robbins '13, as Alumni Director.

Mr. Alspsach announced the election by the Executive Committee of Miriam Barnet Smith '14 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles H. Miller '24.

President's Reception

President and Mrs. N. E. McClure, assisted by Dr. and Mrs. J. Harold Brownback, and Dean Whorton A. Kline, greeted a large number of faculty members, alumni and friends of the College at four o'clock in the library. The main reading room was attractively decorated with cut flowers, and provided a pleasant meeting place for acquaintances and friends.

Alumni Dinner

The annual Alumni buffet supper took place at 6 p.m., on Alumni Day in the Freeland Hall Dining Room. Approximately 175 alumni members were in attendance. The members of the present graduating class were guests of honor.

According to pre-arranged plans, there were no speeches whatever and the meeting adjourned with the singing of the Campus Song.

A LETTER

To Members of the Ursinus Woman's Club:

Our Club has fallen in line with the current trend of curtailing activities in view of the increased pressure of war-time exigencies. We did, however, sponsor a spring luncheon, bridge and fashion show at Strawbridge and Clothier's in Philadelphia on Saturday, April 26. It was an unusually gala occasion, but attended by only eighty members and their friends. In view of the fact that live hundred invitations were sent to Ursinus women in the Philadelphia area, and the response was less than one fifth, a few pertinent conclusions might well be drawn.

Does it seem logical to you that the Woman's Club might have out-lived its usefulness as a separate organization? Would it be heresy to suggest its combination with the Alumni Association? Certainly, any institution thrives and develops only with a strong and interested alumni. It seems to me that such a step would inject new life and incentive for all of us to concentrate on one united alumni organization.

I do not mean to lightly cast aside the great and truly noble work of the Woman's Club in the past,—we recognize and pay just tribute to those loyal souls who worked so well to do so much. However, I do believe that adaptation to the present and future is essential to healthy advancement.

What is your reaction? Please write and let us know your thoughts and solutions to this problem of wider and better participation.

Sincerely yours,

REBECCA W. PRICE '31
President, Ursinus Woman's Club

KEHL PRIZE

This year at Commencement for the first time, there was awarded The George W. Kehl Prize, to Barbara Djurup, a member of the junior class.

This prize, amounting to fifty dollars, "is awarded annually at Commencement to a member of the Sophomore or the Junior class who has been a good citizen of the College community, and whose helpfulness and friendliness have been outstanding." It was established recently by Miss Ada M. Fisher '13, in memory of her uncle, Dr. George W. Kehl, of Reading, Pa.

LOCAL ALUMNI GROUPS MEET

NEW YORK

The annual meeting of the metropolitan New York Alumni Association was held on the evening of May 27 in the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Nearly fifty alumni and friends from New York and New Jersey were in attendance.

Because of the absence of the president, J. Wilbur Clayton '28, who is in military service, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Mary Oberlin Richter '29, vice-president of the Association.

YORK

The Annual Dinner for the York County Ursinus Alumni was held in the West York Inn on Saturday evening, April 29.

Rev. Albert C. Robinson of York offered the Invocation. Words of welcome were extended those presented by the President of the group, Mrs. Dorothy Beck MacBrine.

The victory Chorus, composed of young boys, gave several very entertaining patriotic numbers.

An unhearsed playlet representing a faculty meeting of 1920 was presented by the York members who appeared as instructors, professors and members of the College Staff.

Dr. McClure in his address stressed the contribution of the college to the war effort. Miss Stahr, Dean of Women, was also a guest as well as Mr. Helferich, and Prof. and Mrs. Sheeder.

During the business meeting, the election of officers for the next year was held. The following persons were elected: President, Rev. John Sando; Vice-President, Mrs. Dorothy Horne Warfield; Secretary, Mrs. Anne Beddow Deitz; Treasurer, Mrs. Mildred Olp Frey.

NEWS ABOUT OURSELVES

1895—Dr. and Mrs. Morgan Peters celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Mar. 27. On Sunday, the 26th, a program was presented in the St. Michael’s Church near Hamburg, at which time a most generous gift was given them in appreciation of their faithful stewardship.

EVENTS ON THE CAMPUS

New Term Opens
The Summer Term began on July 3 with an enrollment of 300 students. Nearly one-half of the Navy unit consists of students who are beginning their careers in the training program. A large proportion of the new men have been transferred from the Fleet.

There are 35 new civilian students enrolled for the Summer Term. This is only 5 less than last summer. 7 of the new students are women. Many of the 28 new men students will probably be able to complete only one semester before being inducted into the armed services.

It is anticipated that the enrollment for the Winter Term, scheduled to begin on October 30, will be approximately the same as last year, with the women comprising the major portion of the civilian population. Practically all available space for women students for the Winter Term has already been assigned. Alumni are urged to communicate with the Registrar at once regarding promising prospects.

Forum Speakers
During the Spring term which extended from Feb. 28 to June 26, the Forum Committee brought to the campus Walter D. Fuller, LL.D., of Philadelphia, president of the Curtis Publishing Company and honorary alumnus of the College. Dr. Fuller spoke on the work of the Company and honorary alumnus of the College. Dr. Fuller spoke on the work of the Committee on Economic Development of which he is regional chairman. Another speaker of note who appeared before the Ursinus Community Forum was Max Lerner, of New York City, distinguished journalist, political commentator, and editorial writer for PM. Mr. Lerner addressed a large audience in Bomberger Hall on “Where Do We Go From Here?”

Pre-Med Society Meetings
The James M. Anders Pre-Medical Society conducted a series of interesting meetings featuring Dean Gerald M. Timmons, of the Temple University Dental School, who explained the part that dentistry is playing in modern warfare; Dr. H. N. Leinbach, of Reading, Pa., who discussed the opportunities available in the field of orthopedic surgery; and Dr. Morton J. Oppenheimer '27, of the Temple University Medical School faculty, who presented some findings in the special field of research in which he has been engaged at the famous Mayo Clinic, in Rochester, Minn.

Dr. Hart Speaks at Vespers
The Christian Associations have continued their support of a Spanish refugee child who is now residing in England, sponsored a week-end assistance program at the River Crest Preventorium near Phoenixville, Pa., and conducted a campaign for clothing and funds for the benefit of Greek and Chinese war sufferers. Sunday vespers speakers during the term included Dr. John Robbins Hart, rector of the Valley Forge Memorial chapel, and Rev. Dewees F. Singley '15, of Philadelphia.

Annual May Day
Parents' Day was celebrated on May 20 with the presentation of the annual May Day Pageant, and attracted one of the largest groups to the campus in recent years. The pageant “The Land of Oz” was written by Helen Hafeman '46. In the evening the Curtain Club presented a comedy “Junior Miss,” which was enthusiastically received. The play was under the direction of Vice-President and Mrs. D. L. Helfferich, assisted by Joy Harter '45. Another feature of the day was the serving of a buffet supper on the campus.

Carter Elected President
Local A. A. U. P. Chapter
An Ursinus chapter of the American Association of University Professors was recently organized by members of the Ursinus faculty. The chapter has twenty-one charter members and was organized for the purpose of promoting professional interests and research activities on the Ursinus campus. The officers include Harvey L. Carter, president; John W. Clawson, vice-president; F. I. Sheeder, secretary; and Helen T. Garrett, treasurer.

Post-War Plans Discussed
For the past several months a specially appointed curriculum committee of the College faculty has been making a study of needed changes in the organization and content of the curriculum to meet post-war requirements. The committee, which consists of Professors J. W. Clawson, J. H. Brownback, and F. I. Sheeder, has met with the entire faculty in small groups. Free and frank discussion has been encouraged, and the committee has just completed recommended proposals of change which will be presented to the Academic Council, to the entire faculty, and to the Board of Directors for approval or rejection.

The recommendations do not anticipate any revolutionary changes, but suggest a system of organization whereby the departments will be arranged in divisions somewhat as follows:

I. Literature
II. Social Sciences
III. Natural Sciences
IV. Mental and Moral Sciences
V. Fine and Practical Arts

It is contemplated that students will be required to take a certain amount of work in each of the five Divisions and will select a field of concentration in a single department or within a Division. Although this system does not differ greatly from the one now in effect, it provides for combinations of majors, or fields of concentration, not now possible. It will in effect represent the organization of the College into a lower and an upper Division.

It is expected that considerable modification will be made in these proposals before a plan is finally adopted.

Other features of the proposed plan include a quality point system which will be somewhat more explicit than the one now in effect, general cultural and achievement tests at the end of the sophomore year to help determine the student’s fitness to continue his college program, and provision for what in effect will represent the organization of the College into a Lower and Upper Division.

It is probable that there will be considerable modification of the proposals submitted before a completely acceptable plan is finally adopted, but the faculty and administration are concerned that the College shall provide the most effective means for the kind of liberal education that is needed for the future.
"Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori."

Sgt. John S. Little ex '43, a Marine bombardier and navigator on a Mitchell bomber, was killed in action in the South Pacific, it is believed, on May 5. His plane was shot down by anti-aircraft guns over enemy territory, and it is presumed all members of the crew were killed.

Sgt. Little enlisted in the Marines in August, 1942.

2nd Lt. David Edmonds ex '32, died in England on March 16 as a result of wounds received while on a bombing trip over Germany. He was serving as a bombardier with the Eighth Air Force, and on his eleventh mission, which was over Stuttgart, the engine of the plane was damaged. The ship reached England safely, but in a crash landing there, all except three members of the crew were killed.

Lt. Edmonds was admitted as a Cadet in the U. S. Air Corps in November, 1941, and received his commission in December of the following year.

His mother has been given the Purple Heart award, made posthumously to Lt. Edmonds by President Roosevelt.

Henry C. Turner ex '46, a member of the Infantry forces, was killed in action on May 29 in action near Rome. He entered Ursinus in Sept., 1942 and left in Feb. 1943 to join the Armed Forces. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Turner of Chester, Pa., where his father is employed as Professor of History in the Pennsylvania Military College.

Av. Cadet Roy F. Walz ex '45, former basketball star, was accidentally shot and killed at San Angelo, Texas, Army Air Base, when one of his companions picked up a pistol during target practice and pulled the trigger by mistake. Walz died two days later, April 29, in the Post Hospital.

He was to have received his wings on that day, and to have been married during his post-graduation furlough.

2nd Lt. Wilmer E. Knight '41 was killed in action on Feb. 6 in the Italian war zone. Before being transferred to Italy, Lieut. Knight served in Africa, participating in a number of active battles.

After being graduated from Ursinus, he began his training as a pilot in the Army Air Corps two years ago. He was trained at Bainbridge field, Alabama, and Maxwell field, Alabama, and was graduated at Arcadia field, Florida, on March 25, 1943.

Pfc. Andrew R. Wight, 3rd ex '44, has been reported missing in action on the Anzio beachhead, since Feb. 23. He was serving in an infantry intelligence unit.

Pfc. Wight entered the service in February, 1943. While in Italy he suffered from an attack of malaria and jaundice, for which he was hospitalized for forty days. Following this, at his own request, he was then sent back to his unit, which was serving on the Anzio beachhead.

The Journal extends sincerest sympathy to the families and friends of men lost in the war.

At the suggestion of an alumnus, we are publishing a list of all those reported lost in the war to date. If you find this list to be inaccurate, please notify some member of the Journal Committee so that correction may be made.

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE SERVICE

The editorial committee of the Journal sincerely regrets that censorship regulations will not permit the publication of addresses of service men in sufficient detail for mailing purposes. Believing that incomplete addresses would be of little value to you, we have omitted this feature from the list of those serving in the armed forces.

Mrs. Leighton K. Smith, the new alumni secretary, 88 Sixth Ave., Collegeville, Pa., maintains a file of addresses, however, and will be glad to supply any desired information upon request.

Please help to keep the list up-to-date by sending changes of address to Mrs. Smith promptly.

Capt. Reynolds

Capt. Frank B. Reynolds ’37, Chaplain of the 166th Infantry, received the Army’s Silver Star for staying with advance elements of the battalion during the fighting and for assisting the wounded regardless of personal danger.

Lt. Cmdr. Norris A. Johnson ’36, was awarded the Soldier’s Medal for heroism in rescuing the crew of a bomber when it crashed and caught fire April 23 on Los Negro Island. He, with six enlisted men, disregarding the danger of the gasoline and bombs exploding, entered the plane and removed the injured crew.

LIBRARY NEEDS COPIES OF RUBY

In checking over the file copies of The Ruby in the Library recently, it was discovered that certain years are missing. If any alumnus has a copy of The Ruby for any of the years listed below that he might give to the Library, it would be much appreciated if he would so write Mr. Charles H. Miller, Librarian. The following years are missing:

<table>
<tr>

It was also found that there are a few extra copies for certain years, and any one who wishes to obtain a copy of the following volumes may do so by sending ten cents in postage to Mr. Miller. Copies are available for the following years:

Contributions may be made to the Loyalty Fund any time during the year.
A REPORT ON THE LOYALTY FUND

The 1943-44 Loyalty Fund showed further growth over the records set in preceding years, contributions having totaled $15,919.35, or an increase of 26% over 1942-43. Of this amount, 270 alumni gave $6,702.60, a gain of 44% over last year, while the average per alumnus jumped from $14.59 to $24.82 for the startling increase of 74%, a figure which reflects the actual facts, as there were no individual gifts to load the average. Most contributors felt that debt reduction was the College’s most pressing financial need, judging from the way they designated their gifts, but the other objects named in the appeal were by no means neglected.
