Dear Reuben,

W-Knox writes me from Washington that the senatorial situation for him is entirely satisfactory. That is good: but I hope he will be "doped out" at that time in a manner to make his presidential candidacy seem the obvious thing it is. He says nothing of his plans.

Handley, the C.G. at Calao [China], says in a letter to me dated Feby. 16th: - "Most of the Englishmen have left the country to fight, Guthrie having gone by the last steamer via New York." Handley speaks of my re-marriage & even sends me a clipping on the subject which he had had got by the previous mail. He had also received the word I had sent him from Reno. I wonder!?

There we stop on at this delectable but horribly dear place. The swimming is fine and Lucille is making fine progress in the art as well as improving in health I think.

Our latest idea is to leave for Habana about Friday the 17th and to spend a week there and then to go via Nassau + Jacksonville to White Sulphur Springs to spend the first half of April there and then to look in at Washington - & then, what?

Yours ever,

H.W.

P.S. Two wars seem pretty near now, don't they, - thanks to "watchful waiting" and "fearful fretting"? H
