United States Senate,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

PHILANDER C. KNOX
PENNSYLVANIA

April 12, 1917.

Brig. Gen. Enoch H. Crowder,
Judge Advocate General,
War Department, Washington, D. C.

Dear General Crowder:

I hope you will find it possible to utilize Mr. Huntington Wilson in the service, as it is my opinion that he is capable of rendering valuable service to the country at this time. I have the highest regard for Mr. Wilson's ability, industry and loyalty and have found him a man who vastly improves upon acquaintance and is fully capable of meeting heavy responsibilities.

Very sincerely yours,

K-B
