In Memoriam

Each time the Alumni Journal is published, the Honor Roll is longer by some half dozen names. We feel something of the sorrow and sense of loss that lies back of the addition of each name. We know the families of these men carry heavy hearts, and that for them the war never can be really won. We sympathize deeply and sincerely, and hope they will find a measure of comfort in the knowledge that their boys have done a truly great thing.

We are faced on the one hand by the tragedy of their loss and on the other with the necessity to preserve America's traditional heritage of freedom and democracy. To those who have experienced the death of someone dear in the war, it may seem cruel and heartless to say that the loss has been worth it, even if these principles are preserved only for this generation and the next. But if we are to face the future with confidence, to continue living and working, we have to believe that our government and our statesmen feel a heavy responsibility to the people of the United States because of their sacrifices, and that in the years ahead, when the world organization is put to the test, it will be and must be effective in solving international differences peacefully.

In the last analysis, our government and our statesmen will be guided by what the people want. We have to believe that these sacrifices will be remembered, and to be convinced that if we the people at home truly want a functioning world organization as much as our fighting men seem to want it, a way surely will be found to make it work.

The Journal is extremely glad to report that Russell Huckel ’42 and Theodore Burns, Jr., ex ’46 are safe and well. We hope other Ursinus men missing in action may yet be found.

A Word of Appreciation

Many of you will learn with genuine regret of the resignation of Dr. Harvey L. Carter. Few professors have such an intimate and detailed knowledge of their subjects or can teach students so much in so entertaining a way.

Students learned early in their associations with him that bluffing was impossible, and that it was advisable to "know it cold" before trying to take an examination in his course. His scholastic standards were high for his students, and no less so for himself. He wrote a number of articles for publication in various historical magazines, and made an exhaustive study of election returns over the last century. He followed political campaigns with great interest and predicted results with considerable accuracy. His wit and humor delighted Ursinus students for more than fifteen years.

Liberal and progressive in thought, open-minded, sincere, unhurried and unhurrying, and above all, having the courage of his convictions, Dr. Carter was friend and counselor to many a student.

A leader among his colleagues, he revived interest in the inactive Ursinus branch of the American Association of University Professors. As its president during the past year, he did a great deal to promote the best interests of the faculty.

Mrs. Carter was active in the life of the College and community. Together they made a contribution which will be sorely missed. The Journal extends best wishes for success and happiness.

Some of our readers have suggested that a registration book be provided at a convenient place on campus so that graduates visiting the College may leave a record of their visits. This will undoubtedly be of interest to all graduates who return and a book is to be provided and placed in the Library at an early date.

If you visit the campus, please sign the register, including your new address if you have one.
The following paragraphs are an informal report to the alumni.

In order to comply with the regulations of the Office of Defense Transportation Ursinus College this year sent to the alumni no invitations to Commencement. For the same reason the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association decided that no meeting of the Association should be held this year. Accordingly, no alumni dinner was planned, and the several class reunions that were being planned for Alumni Day were postponed until a more favorable time. The Board of Directors, the Faculty, and the officers of the College share with the alumni the hope that before next June many alumni will be released from the armed forces, and that the regulations of the Office of Defense Transportation will be changed, so that large numbers of alumni can as usual return to the College on Alumni Day.

During the years of war Ursinus College has been most fortunate. We have been able to continue our normal work, and in so doing we have made the largest contribution that a liberal arts college can make. Enrollment has remained at a high level. Admission standards have not been lowered. The ability of the Freshmen as measured by the tests prepared by the American Council on Education continues to be satisfactory. Our Freshmen in 1943 ranked eleventh in the group of 241 colleges and universities that used these tests; in 1944 our Freshmen ranked tenth in the group of 282 colleges and universities that used the tests. Our Faculty has been retained at full strength. The gifts of alumni and others have enabled us to end each year without a deficit, to continued the steady reduction of the funded debt, and to increase our endowment funds and building funds. For all this I am sure that all the friends of the College are thankful, and the Board of Directors, Faculty, and students are grateful to all those alumni who have helped in so many ways during this difficult period.

Alumni will be pleased to learn of a generous bequest that the College will soon receive. A former student, David Laucks Hain, who died March 5, 1945, provided in his will for a bequest of $75,000 to endow a professorship in science. We expect to receive this sum within a few months.

The Winter Term will begin on October 29 with a capacity enrollment of civilian students in residence. We cannot expect for several years a normal quota of men students. On February 24, 1945, the Board of Directors authorized an increase in the number of women students above the present level of 300. This increase is temporary, and as soon as possible we shall return to our normal ratio of about 300 men and 250 women.

The Anniversary Fund has not yet reached the desired total of $150,000. On June 30, 1945, we had received $73,000 in gifts and $48,000 in pledges, a total of $121,000. We are confident that we shall soon reach the goal.

The years of war have been critical years for the College. I am profoundly grateful to the many hundreds of alumni who have helped. With your continued help the College can face confidently the new responsibilities and opportunities of the years of peace.

Dr. McFarland is Speaker

The 75th annual commencement exercises, which were held in Bomberger Hall on June 25, featured an address by Joseph McFarland, M.D., Sc.D., of Philadelphia. The Commencement speaker was awarded the degree of Doctor of Science by Ursinus College in 1914 and is now Professor Emeritus of Pathology at Temple University Dental School. Dr. McFarland spoke on "The Ethics of Pretension" and based his remarks on Psalm 39, verses 5-6, "Verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Surely every man walketh in a vain show."

Degrees in course were conferred upon fifty-five graduates. Arthur J. Gehring, Jr., who is now an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve serving in the Pacific area, was valedictorian, and Constance Marguerite Johnson was salutatorian. These students received their diplomas at the Commencement exercises in February. Cum Laude honors were awarded to Ethel Irene Anderson and Frederick Paul Knieriem.

Honorary degrees were conferred as follows: the Rev. John H. A. Bomberger '17, Philadelphia, Pa., Doctor of Divinity; the Rev. Raymond Edward Wilhelm '18, Spring City, Pa., Doctor of Divinity.

The following prizes were awarded: The Philip H. Fogel Memorial Prize, Frederick P. Knieriem '45; The Paisley Prizes, Donald R. Boger '45 and Beverly E. Cloud '45; The Elizabeth Rockefeller McCain Prize divided between Thelma M. Gresh '47 and Joan Wilmut '47; The Boershore Prizes for women divided between Elizabeth R. Fluke '48 and Arline A. Schlesser '46; The Duttera Prize, Thelma M. Gresh '47; The Ursinus Women's Club Prize, Betty V. Bradway '45; The Ursinus Circle Prize, Irene Sufias '46; The Ellen Beaver Schlaybach Memorial Prize, Constance M. Johnson '45; The Rosicrucian Prize, Constance I. Bartholomew '48; The Edwin M. Fogel Prize, Eleanor Baum '48; The George Ditter Prize, Frederick P. Knieriem '45; The George W. Kehl Prize, Virginia K. Tovey '46; The I. Calvin Fisher Prize, David D. Van Strien '46; The Leibensperger Prize, Madelyn M. Jaindl '46; The Carter Prize, Irene Sufias '46.

The last three prizes were awarded for the first time this year's commencement exercise. The I. Calvin Fisher Prize of $50 was established by Miss Ada M. Fisher '13, in memory of her father, the Rev. I. Calvin Fisher, D.D., '89. The Leibensperger Prize of $20 was established by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Leibensperger, Hershey, Pa. Mrs. Leibensperger is the former Merle L. Williamson '31. The prize is awarded to a member of the Sophomore or of the Junior Class who has been a good citizen of the College community, and whose helpfulness and friendliness have been outstanding.

Dr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Carter offered two special prizes for this year only. One Twenty-Five Dollar War Bond was awarded for the best prose essay of 1,000 words or less in honor and commemoration of Franklin D. Roosevelt. The second prize of one Twenty-Five Dollar War Bond for the best poem of twenty-eight lines or less in honor and commemoration of Franklin D. Roosevelt was not awarded.

Baccalaureate

The Baccalaureate service was held in Bomberger Hall on Sunday, June 24, with the Rev. John H. A. Bomberger '17, of Philadelphia as the speaker. Dean W. A. Kline, President N. E. McClure, and Dr. John Lentz also participated in the service. Musical selections were contributed by the College choir and a male quartet. David Kapp of the V-12 unit rendered a violin solo.

Board Holds Meeting

The Board of Directors met in the Alumni Memorial Library on Saturday, June 23. It received interim reports from the officers and committees of the corporation, and from the administrative officers of the college.

The Treasurer's report indicated that the fiscal year ending on June 30, 1945, would disclose a profit smaller than shown for the previous year. The Treasurer, Ralph F. Wismer '05, stated that the fine financial condition of the College was due in no small measure to the contributions of the Alumni and friends of the College through the Loyalty Fund, and the allotment made to the College by the General Synod of the Evangelical & Reformed Church. He emphasized the need for continued support by all the alumni and friends of the College during the next few years.

The Committee on Buildings and Grounds gave a detailed report on the many improvements made during the past year, calling particular attention to the furnishing and reconditioning of the reception rooms in a number of the girls' dormitories. Upon recommendation of The Rev. James M. Niblo, D.D., chairman of this committee, the officers of the corporation were instructed to proceed with the preparation of plans for adequate sewage disposal, in accordance with requirements of a recent Pennsylvania law.

The Committee on Government and Instruction recommended the election of a number of new members to the faculty:

Dr. Maurice W. Armstrong was appointed Professor of History to take the place of Dr. Harvey L. Carter who resigned because of ill health. Dr. Armstrong has been teaching history at Harvard University.

Miss Eugenie K. Bigelow was appointed Instructor in Political Science. Miss Bigelow received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Barnard College, studied in the University of Paris, and received her Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. She has been teaching political science and history at Hollins College, Va.

Joseph M. Chiarelottti, Class of 1945, was appointed Assistant in Biology for the Summer Term.

Prof. Alfred M. Wilcox, Dr. Charles D. Mattern, and Dr. Foster L. Dennis were advanced to the rank of Associate Professor.

The Committee on Amendments to the By-laws of the College presented its report and submitted a new set of by-laws for consideration. After discussion, this matter was tabled for further study by the Committee.

The special committee on the 75th Anniversary Program reported that the Anniversary celebration would be held on Nov. 14, 1945, and that the speaker for the occasion would be General Edward Martin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

President N. E. McClure gave an encouraging report in which he stated that in spite of uncertainties, the academic work of the students during the past year has been of the same high standard attained during the previous ten years. He announced that Brodbeck Hall would be used as a women's dormitory beginning in November, 1945.

The Finance Committee submitted a budget that showed the possibility of operating the College without loss for the next year if economies are practiced and contributions can be increased.

Mrs. Robert Donald Evans (Effie Brunt '15), having been nominated by the Alumni Association as alumni director for a period of five years to succeed herself, was duly elected by the Board.

EVENTS ON THE CAMPUS

Sports Program

Snell's sluggers dominated the Spring sports parade. Under the leadership of Captain Betty Bradway they went through their fifth consecutive undefeated season. The co-ed tennis team played a seven match schedule, winning six and losing one. Betsy Clayes reached the semi-finals of the Middle States Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament held at Bryn Mawr. During March the girls' basketball team won one, tied one, and lost two. A new sport—swimming—appeared on the co-ed's Spring calendar. Organized and managed by Betty Tyson, the girls gained a victory over Chestnut Hill and placed third in an intercollegiate meet.

The men had one of the most successful track seasons in Ursinus history. The Bears captured the one mile Middle Atlantic States Collegiate title in the Penn Relays, placed second in the Middle Atlantic States meet, and won a similar position in a seven college invitation tournament at Swarthmore.

Students Participate in Full Extra-Curricular Program

Campus activities during the Spring semester continued to reflect the interest of the college in world affairs. A V-E Day service was held in the chapel of Bomberger on May 7. Trinity Reformed Church sponsored a series of four Sunday night forums on the problems of World Organization. The regular college Forum program featured Dr. Vera Michele Donin, Research Director for the Foreign Policy Association, who spoke on "Russia as a World Power." A campus Red Cross Unit received its Charter in April.

A full program of extra-curricular activities was carried on by campus organizations. The Curtain Club produced "The Royal Family"; Dr. J. M. Oppenheimer, Prof. of Physiology at Temple U. Medical School, addressed the Pre-Medical Society; and the annual May Day Pageant was a success with Peggy Hudson as May Queen.

Outstanding on the Y program were two talks—one by Rev. Harold Wilke, an armless pastor, on "What Should Be Our Attitude Toward the Returning Veteran?"; and another by Mr. Emery Nelson of the Chester Y.M.C.A. on "Friendship and Marriage."

Faculty Resignations and Appointments

Harvey L. Carter, Ph.D., professor of history at Ursinus since 1928, resigned his position to accept an appointment at the University of Denver. Professor Carter's resignation was occasioned by a physical condition that has shown no improvement during the past few years. Professor and Mrs. Carter left a host of friends among the alumni and faculty.

Other resignations include the following: Edward M. Man, Jr., '43, instructor in physics; Inge B. Benda, '44, assistant in German; and Mary Jane Lytle, '44, assistant in German. Mr. Man has taken a position with the Armstrong Cork and Linoleum Co., Lancaster, Pa. Misses Benda and Lytle will continue graduate studies at Bryn Mawr College.

Maurice W. Armstrong, Ph.D., Harvard, 1945, has been appointed professor of history, and will begin upon his duties at the opening of the Winter Term. Dr. Armstrong is an ordained minister in the Congregational Christian Church and has served pastorates in Canada and New England.

Joseph Chiaravalli, a member of this year's graduating class, has been appointed assistant in biology for the Summer Term. Mr. Chiaravalli will enter medical school in the Fall.

Eugenie K. Bigelow has been appointed instructor in political science. Miss Bigelow has studied at Columbia University, University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Paris. She has been a member of the faculty of Hollins College in Virginia.

Summer Term

The Summer term opened on Mon., July 2, with an enrollment of 83 civilian students and 100 V-12 trainees. A total of 28 new students were admitted; 22 of this number were men and 8 were women.

The session will continue for sixteen weeks and will close on Oct. 20, when the Navy program will be terminated. Hobson and Shreiner Halls are being used for women students during the summer, and the civilian men are housed in Curtis Hall.

A Report on The Loyalty Fund

By D. L. HELFFERICH

Vice-President

This issue of the Journal marks the fifth anniversary of the Loyalty Fund. It was in the autumn issue of the 1940 Journal that an article under the title, The Loyalty Fund, presented to the alumni and friends of Ursinus "the urgent need of an increased annual income to meet the requirements of the future." One of the paragraphs in that article read as follows:

"Do not fail to send something, whatever the size of the gift. It will be measured only by the speed of its arrival."

At the end of the first year, alumni had responded to the appeal with gifts totaling $3,109.76. In 1942, 263 alumni contributed $3,177.58, an average of $12.08 per alumni contributing. In 1943 the number of contributing alumni had increased to 320, and the total of gifts had increased to $4,669.22. For the period 1943-1944, the number of contributors declined to 270, but an increase in the size of the individual gifts brought the 1944 total to $6,702.60.

At the close of the 1944-45 fiscal year on June 30, 1945, the records showed that 404 alumni had contributed $13,500. But this is not all. For the first time in the history of the Loyalty Fund there were a number of pledges included. The total of these pledges amount to $20,000.

Ursinus College for the past five years has geared its operations to its income. It will continue to live within its means. Its financial house is in order, but its need for growth continues. Its advances in the future will to a great extent depend upon its alumni.

July 1 marks the beginning of a new fiscal year—the year of our 75th anniversary. July 1 also marks the beginning of a new Loyalty Fund year. Some time within the next month or two you will receive an appeal to contribute to the 1945-1946 Loyalty Fund.

Repeating the statement in the first Loyalty Fund article, we say, "Do not fail to send something, whatever the size of the gift. It will be measured only by the speed of its arrival."

"After a four month course in the Chinese language at Yale I left the U.S. in November of 1943. That same month I arrived in India and spent a little over a month traveling across that country prior to flying across 'the hump' into China.

"India is an extremely interesting country—as well as an exceedingly confusing one to any person who tries to delve into numerous political and economic problems. Like many an ambitious social science student I figured that while I was passing through the place, I might just as well clear up a few—if not all—of those problems. It is certainly nothing that is going to be solved by a wave of the magic wand. One thing that the Indian people are going to have to learn prior to fl ying across 'the hump' into China is the Chinese language at

I owe them a living. I sympathize with the fact that they have been pushed around just as well clear up a few—if not all—of those problems. It is certainly nothing that is going to be solved by a wave of the magic wand. One thing that the Indian people are going to have to learn prior to fl ying across 'the hump' into China is the Chinese language at we have accomplished in this war. Here in India I have become a rabid admirer of the United States for two reasons. The first is for the things we have accomplished in this war. Here in China we don't have the thousands and thousands of planes, tanks and other things commonplace to Europe. But when you are sitting out in the mountain with only a rocky, rugged foot trail as your connection with civilization, it is nice to watch that 'dropper' plane kicking out the supplies you need to keep going. Then you see a few U.S. bombers and fighters and hear U.S. supplied ammunition and guns popping all around and you realize that the U.S. is really doing a job—even at the end of a 15,000 mile supply line in a country having no land routes to connect it with the outside world.

"The second reason I admire our U.S.A. so rabidly is because of the things we have at home—a decent standard of living and educational opportunity. And I think that perhaps these things are taken too much for granted by most of our citizens.

"However, there have been times when I wondered a bit about the U.S. Things like keeping Ham Fish in Congress for so many years; our political bosses in Chicago, New Jersey, Missouri; our hesitant foreign policy, and reluctance to accept the leadership in world affairs. We seem materially capable of great things but as yet not quite mentally adjusted."—Capt. William L. Yeomans '39, somewhere in China.

Dec. 30, 1944.

"Our Christmas was no different from any other day of duty, but we all hope the next bears the gift of peace. I wonder if the school gave the yearly presentation of Handel's 'Messiah'? I saw and heard each presentation given while in school and it has become a part of my Christmas thoughts."—1st Lt. Wm. Laird Henry, Jr. ex '41, APO, New York.

Jan. 29, 1945.

"After two weeks at Oglethorpe, getting 'toughened' up for our rugged life overseas, we went to a POE on the West Coast, and hence aboard a luxury liner for our trip to New Guinea. The ocean voyage was not half bad—we were a mite crowded, of course, but there were about 15 fellows to every girl and we had an occasional movie, lots to read, and a 'sing' on deck every day.

"We hit New Guinea (and how the Capt. ever managed to even find the place in the midst of all the water is beyond me!) in November, and after 6 weeks we were alerted to fly up here."

"As for the 'rugged' life in New Guinea—it's not at all as I'm sure half the people in the States believe. We live in tents with concrete floors and one 25 watt bulb hanging from the ceiling. There are six cots to a tent and when properly arranged, there's a good bit of room. Our chow is not bad—even dehydrated food tastes good when you're hungry.

"I have choir practice two nights a week, S.M.C.L. meeting one night, and I go at least two nights to the hospital to visit the wounded men back from the front and take cigarettes and candy to them. So my dates, other than swimming, are few and far between."—Pfc. Sue M. Cross ex '42, APO, San Francisco, Calif.

"On Dec. 17 our favorite uncle gave me a raise. The gold of a major changed color for the silver of a lieutenant colonel. The Army has been very good to me, I'll have completed two and a half years overseas by the time you get this letter. It hasn't been exactly a picnic or sightseeing tour. I've picked up four campaign stars, and quite a few gray hairs along the way, but I passed my recent physical exam with flying colors. It isn't the age of the car, or the road that you've driven but the care you've taken of it that determines depreciation. My old chassis is in good shape 'from living right'!—Lt. Col. (chaplain) Paul W. Bare '24, APO, New York.

Fowlmere, England.

"I have been transferred from the Signal Corps to the Air Corps. In spite of the change, I am still living in the same place and doing the same work. For 18 months I have been stationed within 7 miles of Cambridge. I have been fortunate in being able to meet and become very friendly with a number of very nice people from there, including a few instructors and students there. I was some months without really knowing anyone at all but once I made friends with one man he introduced me to his friends and now I have quite a few. They vary greatly in their professions. One is a radio engineer, one teaches chemistry, another physics and electronics, and yet another is in a large Cancer Research Hospital. One of the most interesting is an antique dealer who has quite a trade with people in the States."—Pfc. James H. Tippett '43.

May 24, 1945.

"On numerous occasions I have felt very lucky that I was picked by the M.P.s to be one of them after having been assigned to the Division as an Infantry replacement. We have a very fine outfit and have earned a great deal of respect for our military courtesy and cleanliness.

"During the campaign I have been attached to all of our sections at one time or another. The sections are the Command Post, Traffic, Town Security, Prisoner of War and also the G.I. stockade.

"Up until the last few days we had been an integral part of the lst Army and then were changed to the 3rd Army.
What lies ahead of us I guess there are very few that know. At my rate time will tell and meantime, I’m anxiously awaiting the announcement of the critical score, hoping that it may give me a chance to be discharged and rejoin my family before my two boys are ready to enter college.”—Pfc. Charles C. Smith ’36, APO, New York.

Spring, 1945.

“People from Ursinus really get around and we all look forward to a grand reunion and many good times at the school which holds many fond memories. Have met Lt. (j.g.) Toy Dawson ’40, Lt. (j.g.) Charles M. Bowen ’41, Ens. Charles Cassel ’43, and Ens. Hank Thorpe ex ’43. We met in Leyte, P.L.”—Lt. David I. Jacobs ’41, somewhere in the Pacific.

May 7, 1945.

“I’m somewhere in the Mariannas at present, and my mail from Ursinus still finds me, I’m glad to say.

“I came overseas in the same group with Capt. Charles Cubberley ’36 and a few days ago met Capt. Howard Johnson ’34, both medical officers.”—Morris L. Yoder, Jr. ’40, M.C.

Ed—Sorry, Morris, we do not know your rank.

Apr. 24, 1945.

“I have spent over thirteen months in New Guinea and I surely would like to get off the island. It seems that New Guinea is the same from one end to the other. At present the rainy season is about to begin.

“I am a member of the maintenance and repair crew whose job it is to repair all kinds of medical department equipment. This includes much electrical work as well as mechanical repair work. Our field ranges from X-ray machines to large Diesel generators. I attended school in St. Louis for four months previous to being sent overseas but I think I learned a lot more over here out on the actual jobs. There is no such thing as ‘send it back to the factory’—it must be repaired! I certainly do like the work although I would really welcome a change in location.”—Sgt. Earl Brunner ex ’46, APO, San Francisco, Calif.

Mar. 17, 1945.

“I want to thank you for sending me a ballot as it makes me feel so much closer to the affairs of the College.

“As yet I haven’t run into any fellow students from Ursinus out here but am hoping I will meet someone real soon.

“I wish to extend my heartiest greeting to all my fellow alumni and hope my friends in the service are as lucky as I have been so far.”—Lt. Robert H. McFarland ’42, somewhere in the Pacific.

May 11, 1945.

“Some of our fellow students present some very congenial ideas for the future. I was especially enthused over Capt. Ward MacNair’s idea for a ‘special Old Timers’ Day’. If those plans are carried out, I will surely be one of the strongest advocates to develop the idea.

“If any former classmates chance upon the Bon Homme Richard (CV-31), be sure to look me up. I’ll gladly show you our ‘fighting lady’.”—S 1/c Earl James Helm breek ex ’45, APO, San Francisco, Calif.

Apr. 2, 1945.

“If it were possible to send you Italian currency, my alumni dues could be paid easily. Money is of little value over here. Kindly let me pay them at a later date.

“It’s getting fairly hot at the moment. If Drew Pearson were here, he might not predict the end of the European war in April.

“Thanks for remembering a fellow alumnus. I do get the Journal occasionally and it feels good to know you are being remembered.”—Lt. Charles E. Graver ’42, Italy.

Spring, 1945.

“My army life has brought me far from Ursinus. I am now in the far reaches of the Pacific.

“Our hospital is set up and operating. We are treating numerous casualties. Joe Conc ello is in our organization; it is unique that two Ursinus men are working together. The staff of our hospital is made up of fine and able physicians and we feel that we do good work.”—Capt. Jean W. Hess ’39.

Apr. 2, 1945.

“It was sure nice to hear from the Alumni Association, and you asked if there was anything you could do toward getting us to renew acquaintances with our old classmates. Yes, if you could arrange about a 30-day leave, I am sure I’d be able to fly back and enjoy seeing many of my friends on Alumni Day. Seriously, though, I hope my wife, the former Jean Smyth ’44 will be able to attend.”—Ens. James F. Zeigler ’43, APO, San Francisco, Calif.

Spring, 1945.

“At present I am assigned to the medical aid station serving the 26th Infantry Division headquarters and special attached troops. The 26th has seen action with the Third Army in France, Belgium, Luxembourg, and Germany. Since joining this outfit as a replacement, I have served in various installations all the way from the front to those more to the rear.”—Pvt. Robert J. Weidenhammer ’40 APO, New York, N. Y.

May 5, 1945.

“A brief note to say how much I enjoyed the last issue of the Journal. I have been at sea since last fall and gotten around quite a bit—France, Belgium, England, and now the Middle East. It’s very hot out here and there are a great many bugs to contend with, but they are better than the V bombs we were dodging up in Antwerp last December.”—C/M Webb N. Morrison ex ’45, Middle East.

March, 1945.

“I have been in the service in the Medical Corps for over two years and have served for fifteen months at Sampson Naval Hospital, where we treated the men from the Sampson Naval Training Station. From there I was detached to Fleet Hospital 114 at Brooklyn, N. Y., and served for a period at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, in a dispensary over which towered the aircraft carrier Bon Homme Richard in the process of being built. From there our group was detached to San Bruno, Calif., a former race track and one time a concentration camp for Japs. They could not stand it, so the Army took over! But they also could not take it, so it was made a Naval Advance Base. While here I did temporary duty at Shoemaker Naval Hospital, a 3,000 bed hospital known as ‘Happy Ship’, and it was nice duty.

“From here we moved to Camp Huene ne, which is a Seabee base and we put in time whipping our unit into shape. After three months here we were shipped to Camp Elliott, near San Diego.

“San Diego Naval Hospital is a place of superlatives. It is the biggest hospital in the world, with between 12,000 and 13,000 patients. I am in the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Dept., and being an ophthalmologist, this is just what I need as a refresher course before we embark. Our department handles over 5,000 patients a month and we receive the injured directly by ship from the Pacific theaters of war.

“The work which is being done in plastic surgery in repairing the terrible war wounds cannot be surpassed anywhere and we have a department here in our eye department which has a man who is using plastic material in forming artificial eyes. He does his own making of molds and is a real artist when it comes to simulating with paint the mark-

Dear Fellow Alumni:

It has been customary for the Secretary to review, in the Summer issue of the Journal, important actions taken by the Executive Committee and the Association during the preceding year. Doubtless many alumni were disappointed to receive notice of the cancellation of the Annual Meeting scheduled for June 23. The decision to send that notice was made after the college officials had sent them a copy of the rulings of the ODT and had advised them of the uncertainty of obtaining sufficient food to entertain the alumni.

At its Fall meeting, the Committee, confronted with increased costs of publication, decided that copies of the Journal should be sent all alumni in service, but the Spring 1945 issue should be the last one sent to non-active members of the Association. In each issue of the magazine published subsequent to the meeting, the Secretary called attention to that action. The response to the business reply card addressed to all graduates during the Winter has been very encouraging and informative. To date 275 replies have been received. The annual appropriation of $100 was made to the Library. This is a very worthwhile project, for students and faculty alike benefit. The Committee unanimously approved the suggestion that a Christmas greeting be sent all Ursinus men and women in the armed forces. The expressions of appreciation received from all parts of the world are evidence of the pleasure this remembrance brought.

A special meeting was called during the Winter to consider a letter from President McClure suggesting the Secretary confer with him on several proposals for Alumni Association activity in the interest of the College. At a conference with several members of the Executive Committee, President McClure expressed the wish that the Association would aid the Administration in appealing to the alumni for contributions to the Loyalty and 75th Anniversary funds, and the Board of Directors in furthering plans for the erection of proposed residence halls for women. The Committee, after a full discussion of the proposals and suggestions made, and a review of the action taken Dec. 11, 1943, when they unanimously voted it was not advisable for them to assume the responsibility for the Loyalty Fund drive among alumni after their offer to do so had been twice rejected, arrived at the following conclusions: "It is the general belief within the Committee that the present time, while perhaps suitable for outlining tentative plans for future Alumni Association activities, is unsuitable for launching, operating, or enlarging the scope of any project which requires collection of funds from alumni, or the active functioning of alumni organizations hitherto more or less inactive and at best not readily stimulated to effective service. Most of the alumni are sharing the responsibility of enterprises associated with the war, and many are actively engaged in the service of the country, in circumstances which do not permit them to participate in organized alumni activities on behalf of the College. The Alumni Association is not provided with personnel or facilities for the active and organized solicitation of contributions for the College. The Committee feels the agencies centered at the College have available the facilities and the experience needed to continue in the most advantageous manner the organized activities having as their common purpose the improvement of the financial condition of the College."

The Secretary was notified in March, 1945, in reply to a request for information, that the Board of Directors had taken action Nov. 21, 1944, to reduce the graduation fee and hereafter to give no part of the fee to the Alumni Association in payment of student dues in the Association.

To the Alumni:

I welcome this opportunity to greet the members of the General Alumni Association. At the same time, let me express my appreciation of the confidence you have shown in me by electing me President of your Association for the ensuing year.

The report of the Secretary-Treasurer reveals a healthy growth in membership and finances during the past year. This growth indicates increasing interest among the alumni in the progress of the College. Much painstaking work has been done in keeping the records on graduates current. This task has been complicated by the fact that a large number of graduates are now in the service of our country. Surely this work merits the support of all departments of the College.

To comply with government regulations, your Executive Committee decided to cancel all activities on Alumni Day. Unfortunately, this action disrupted many plans for reunions. We trust that some of these plans may be carried over until next year, so that Alumni Day, 1946, may be doubly significant. In the meantime, the activity of our local clubs should be stimulated by the present restrictions on travel.

The primary purpose of your Association is to promote the welfare and continued progress of Ursinus. Toward this end, your new officers pledge their cooperation.

D. Sterling Light '16
President

The Committee has been encouraged by the active interest manifested by members of the Association. In the annual election this year, 427 ballots were cast, 61 more than in any preceding year. The Secretary is pleased to report that 55 new members joined the Association, and 53 renewed membership which had lapsed for five years or more.

The Treasurer's report is as favorable as the Secretary's. From July 1, 1944, to July 1, 1945, $1,097 was received in dues (exclusive of $275 paid for the 1944 graduating class). This made a total of $1,372 in dues for the year. The balance on hand July 1, 1945, with all bills paid, was $1,322.21.

The Election Committee reported the following officers and members of the Executive Committee elected by the alumni: Pres.—D. Sterling Light '16; Vice-Pres.—Edith Houck Fettermann '39; Sec.-Treas.—Miriam Barnet Smith '14; Executive Committee — F. I. Shede; Charles H. Miller '24; Ernest C. Wagner '10; Russell C. Johnson '16; Dorothy Thomas Shelley '35; Alexander Clawson '36; Mabel B. Ditter '39.

The Secretary will keep you informed of projects as they are undertaken by the Committee.

Sincerely,

Miriam Barnet Smith '14
Secretary-Treasurer

A Boy Died Last Night
(from the Louisville Courier-Journal)

"A boy died last night. He died in poignant and awful loneliness, out somewhere on a waste of sand, out in a starless silence, ten thousand miles from home.

"If people could only understand it, if they could just grind deep into their thinking the stark, terrible reality of it, every petty selfish interest would be swept away. If they understood about this boy, they would be convinced that no material sacrifice or service that they could perform is too great to insure peace for the generations to follow us."

"It's hard to realize that just about one more winter overseas has passed. What a swell feeling it will be to drift back into civilian life in that fabulous 'Amerika' we discuss so often and so much!"—Cpl. Robert G. Hess '43, APO, N. Y.

Jan. 28, 1945.

"The Infantry to which I am attached is doing a wonderful job. They live in foxholes, eat mostly canned rations and really undergo all the hardships of the war. A hot meal is really a treat to them.

"I undergo only a fraction of their hardships. The Navy and the Air Corps get plenty of publicity but it is the Infantry who must and has to go in before any territory can be held and the enemy driven back. My hat is off to the Infantry."—Capt. Frank L. Miller '37, M.C., somewhere in Germany.

"Last October I returned to the States on a medical leave. From San Francisco I flew to New York by way of Dallas and then after a few days at home, to Washington by train. My trip started by pep, then jeep, launch, ship, station wagon, taxi, plane, bus and finally train. I was under medical care in D. C. until Thanksgiving, when I was supposed to begin an eight weeks' leave. The day after, I was called back and left immediately for the Pacific coast. We sailed from Seattle and since the first of December, I have been working here on Oahu. It was the first Christmas away from home.

"We started this Club from practically nothing. They gave me a building, and that is all—no furniture, no equipment, etc. So that the men would have some place to go on Christmas Eve, we borrowed furniture from the Officers' Club and had a Christmas tree trimmed with popcorn, crumpled paper, hard candy, etc. With the help of the men we later built our own furniture and painted it as well as the walls of the entire place.

"It has come to my attention since I have been working with the men that our educational system is poor so far as teaching people how to live is concerned. New Zealand, Australia and the French on New Caledonia have it all over us.

"The Weekly is read from cover to cover until it is worn out. I had finished reading them and thrown some away when I observed one of the men removing a copy from the wastebasket. Since then I place them with the magazines."—Eleanor L. Wright '37, A.R.C.

May 22, 1945.

"Today I received my Spring issue of the Alumni Journal, and enjoyed particularly the letter from Al Lucy in which he asked about Dave Jacobs. It so happens I ran into Jake last night here in the Philippines. We had quite a time, mostly making plans for the first Old Timers' Day. After this mess is over.

"Have also met a few other fellows from the old Alma Mater both in the Solomons and the Philippines. It's always the same story—what a time when we all get together again."—Lt. (j.g.) Charles M. Bowen '41, FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

"My work has been with an Engineer Petroleum Distribution Company, and that explains the supplying of gasoline to the front lines by means of the snake-like pipelines running through France.

"Our home is a big French hunting lodge containing fifty or more rooms. We have a staff of French civilian help working for us and it seems quite like home. Definitely it is a far cry from the Army life we expected."—Lt. Carl F. Senchenbach '37, APO, New York, N. Y.

"I have been serving with the First Cavalry Division which has recently been celebrating more outstanding achievements in its record of firsts. I have found that living in the Philippines is in itself an adventure. In the course of my travels I have been fortunate enough to see parts of the Admiralties, the Solomons, two of our bases in New Guinea and finally Leyte before our present oper-

Spring, 1945.

"Here at Camp Peary (Va.) my work is in a field which is almost an end unto itself. The area to which I have been assigned in this camp is somewhat of a 'super brig'. To this area are sent the men who have been convicted by several courts martial or else have been convicted of serious offenses. Most have sentences ranging from six months to three or four years. After serving their time they are either discharged dishonorably or returned to duty. Those slated to go back to duty are given the opportunity to go to school to study everything from 'reading' 'riting, and 'rithmetic' to the advanced schools which teach advanced math and subjects dealing with motors.

"Since the men lose all pay and allotments while in this area they have many problems, and the work of the chaplains is quite important. We work hand in hand with the Red Cross and other relief agencies in trying to solve these problems. The number of broken homes behind these men is so large as to be almost unbelievable."—Chaplain Garnet O. Adams '42, U.S. Naval Training and Distribution Center, Camp Peary, Va.

June 1, 1945.

"Just returned from a pass last evening. We spent this one seeing a little bit more of England. We went to Cambridge and visited several colleges of the University and they're all beautiful. Each one has its own chapel which is a masterpiece in itself. Wednesday we decided to go up to Nottingham and right then and there we found the British railroad system 'ain't' so hot. We had to make several changes and each change meant a wait for trains.

"Now that the war is over, I can tell you that our base is at Bury-St. Edmonds. The 303rd was at a little place called Molesworth about 15 miles north of Bedford by air.

"Tomorrow I will have a new experience. Our group is flying ground personnel to Casablanca, and tomorrow's my turn to go.

"Some of my missions included Dresden, Coblenz, Nuremburg, Kiel, the Skoda works at Pilzen, the Bordeaux pocket in France and some smaller targets. One of the small ones was a low-altitude attack on Ulgen, Germany, our first low-altitude raid. I flew in the group lead that day. Fighters and flak were bad at times, but I was one of the luckier ones."—Lt. Frederick H. Wilhelm '43, England.
