The People's Currency may be made vigorous and popular if a free and fearless discussion of its merits is undertaken. The opposition, if genuine, must be met in the open and upon the merits. The Chicago platform Governor on the ticket placed in this state is entirely too popular and common, not be allowed to shield him from Quay the People's Bank of that city. The Philadelphia Magistrate charging ware, who served for years as a decision was reached with but little I ware, that the roadway from the mountain on a carload of wheat can be made. that a profit of from $4.00 to $16.00 that a profit of from $4.00 to $16.00
