April 1, 1909.

My dear Mr. Carpenter:

I have just received a note from Dr. MacCauley, saying he will be very happy to have the honor of calling at the White House to be presented to the President next Saturday at one o'clock, as I learn by your note of March 29th you have kindly arranged.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in brown ink, which appears to be "William Howard Taft". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned below the typed text "Yours sincerely,".

Fred W. Carpenter, Esquire,
Secretary to the President.
