THIS YEAR'S CURTAIN CLUB. "Mr. Barry's Etchings" is the third production this year of the Ursinus College Curtain Club. With Fred Genter as president, the drama group presented a fall play, "Dark Victory," and a one-act play, "A Pair of Lunatics."

The club is presently in a period of transition, aiming to acquire more active members. Under a new constitution, Stars and Players, previously an honorary group, is an elected body chosen by the students and is the governing unit of the Curtain Club. John Gustavson joined the group this year as the faculty advisor.

BOB HOFFERT, producer, is active in Stars and Players and has served on the play-reading committee for the Curtain Club. He has appeared on the Ursinus stage in the Curtain Club productions of "Major Barbara" and "Dark Victory." Bob sings in the Messiah Chorus and is a member of Chi Alpha. He is the newly elected president of the YMCA, is secretary of Sigma Rho Lambda fraternity, and serves as Parliamentarian of the ICG. Bob is studying for the ministry.

BOB VANNUCCI, student director, is a junior biology major from Williamsport, Pa. His various campus activities include the Brownback-Anders Pre-medical Society, the Stuics, M. S. G. A. representative, and Beta Sigma Lambda fraternity. Bob has appeared at Ursinus in "Joan of Lorraine" and has also had experience with dramatics in high school. There he had the leads in "Mr. Barry's Etchings" and "All My Sons." He was also the director of his senior Class Day play.

JOHN R. GUSTAVSON, faculty director, graduated from Upsala College where he was an active member of the Footlight Club. He served two years in the army, and had a graduate assistantship at Lehigh University. A new member of the Ursinus faculty, Mr. Gustavson is an instructor in English. He is the Director of Publicity for the college.

SUSAN KORTE is active in both Stars and Players and Curtain Club. In her sophomore year she appeared in "The Solid Gold Cadillac" on the Ursinus stage. Susan is president of the YWCA, is chaplain of Omega Chi sorority, secretary of the Outing Club, and sings in the Messiah Chorus. She is also a member of the WAA and the cheerleading squad.

JIM RYAN is appearing for the first time on the Ursinus stage. As a sophomore political science major, Jim is kept busy here at school as the associate editor of the "Lantern," an assistant in the publicity department, and a chemistry lab assistant. In high school Jim participated in his senior play "Rebel Without a Cause." Jim's acting talent is hoped to be added to future Curtain Club Productions.

LYNN GRAY has had previous experience in Curtain Club productions, appearing in "Dark Victory" last fall. A member of the Messiah Chorus and the Chapel Choir, she is a sophomore history major from Coatesville, Pa.
