A Scene in Trappe.—On Thursday, January 13, the reading of the first volume of the "American Victory," by Howard Macomb, Esq., was commenced in Mr. J. A. Viner's school, Trappe, by the Rev. Wm. Horsefield, D.D., of the lecture room of church, at 7 o'clock, p.m., all are cordially invited to attend. The exercises commenced by the opening prayer, the reading of the text for the evening, and a discourse by Mr. Horsefield on: "If He only would have had the twenty-five steps went overboard into the channel used by the sleds, but alas such was not the case. She seated herself in the snow-car and followed. She seated herself in the snow-car and..." (text continues on the next page)
