April 4, 1909.

My dear Morse:

I particularly want you to meet Mr. Sherrill before he goes to Buenos Aires as Minister and so I am sending him this note and asking him to arrange it. You will be glad, I am sure, to know that we are sending a Minister who is thoroughly imbued with the ideas of what is to be accomplished in the Latin-American field. I hope you will introduce Mr. Eddy also to Mr. Sherrill.

With very kind regards, I remain, always,

Yours sincerely,

James R. Morse, Esquire,
The American Trading Company,
Broad-Exchange Building,
New York City.
