THE WORLD'S WORK

DOUBLEDAY PAGE & CO., Publishers
GARDEN CITY, L. I., N. Y.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Nov. 17, 1917.

Dear Mr. Wilson:

I am very glad to get your letter.

The nefarious Gibson is staying with me at present and I shall have to suppress him sometime on Sunday and read your article, which I am very eager to do.

I agree with you heartily about the British-American question, and I am going to keep on doing everything I can to encourage the cordiality.

Your notion about possible articles for World's Work had occurred to me also and I was on the point of writing to you. Sometime next week I will send you some suggestions which you in your wisdom can improve on.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Huntington Wilson,
