YALE UNIVERSITY
NEW HAVEN CONNECTICUT

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

October 17, 1932.

F. M. Huntington-Wilson, Esq.,
Hopelands,
Woodbury, Connecticut.

Dear Mr. Huntington-Wilson:

I beg leave to acknowledge your letter of October 14th with enclosure of copy of letter to Mr. Edward S. Harkness under even date.

I find it difficult to agree with you in your apparent estimate of the quality of the economics staff in Yale, but there can be no question about the distinction of Professor Gregory, or the advantage of having men of his calibre connected with a University.

I am sorry if you have made unsuccessful efforts to confer with me. I do not think I have been aware of your calling upon me when I was in town.

Believe me,

Yours very truly,
