Sarasota, Florida, P. O. Box 2044,

January 27, 1941.

Hon. John A. Danaher,

U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C.

My dear Senator Danaher,

As a constituent of yours I write to urge you to work for the quick passage of the President's bill, which might well be called "A Bill to Save America." And I wish to protest against one unnecessary hour's delay. Every day wasted brings incalculable danger near our country.

I enclose an address on Our Aid to Britain I made here Saturday. I have seen no argument for obstructing this course that was in the slightest degree convincing. Have you?

With regards, I am,

Yours faithfully,

F. M. Huntington-Wilson

(of Woodbury, Connecticut).
