The latest story of defalcation by a rakeish officer may be read in the United States District Court report under date of December 28, 1877. The defendant in question is a New York officer who, while on a visit to the city, was found in possession of a bag containing several hundred dollars in gold and silver. He was arrested and brought before the court, where he was found guilty of larceny and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of five years. The defendant is believed to be the same officer who was arrested in Boston recently for a similar offense.

Rheumatism cured at once by Durang's Balsam of Wistaria. Prepared by a well known Dr. M. S. Good, of the World's Dispensary, Boston.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
