HW

THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

June 2, 1933.

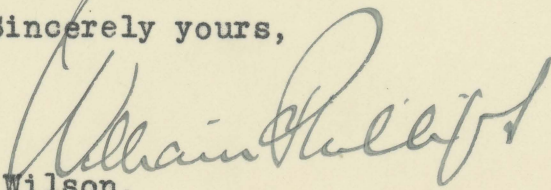

My dear Wilson:

I appreciate very much your thought in writing to me and I thank you cordially for what you say about my appointment to the Department. It is stimulating to be back again, and the work, as you can imagine, is of tremendous interest.

I agree with you in your desire for cooperation between the British and ourselves in the field of foreign affairs. Such cooperation would certainly have a great deal of influence in steadying present international relations, but there always seems to be an obstacle to complete success in this direction. I shall look forward with interest to reading the memoranda which you have prepared and will see that Mr. Moley hands them to me.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Mr. F. W. Huntington Wilson,

Hopelands,

Woodbury, Connecticut.
