Augustine Lonergan

June 6, 1933.

My dear Sir,

I am one of very many voters who helped elect you because they wanted Roosevelt to have loyal support and who are deeply shocked by your vote to hamper his just economy regarding ex-service men. The veteran racket is notorious and it has nothing to do with the universal desire to deal generously with those who actually suffered from actual war.

If our representatives are going to serve organized minorities instead of the public interest, the future of this country is dark indeed.

Yours faithfully

Senator Lonergan
