U.C. German Prof Dies

Dr. George Wellington Harttall 68, professor of German at Ursinus College, died peacefully in St. John's Hospital, Thursday, November 25, at his home after an illness of nearly two years. He was the last of the original 40 faculty members at this town Hospital during that time and graduated in 1874 because of illness.

He joined the Ursinus faculty in 1914 and in 1927 he received a Ph.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He was the husband of Helen (Susan) Harttall, and lived at 66th Ave., Collegeville, Pa.

Born in Beithlehem, Pa., he received his high school education and graduated in 1923 from Liberty High School and from Lehigh University in 1929. He received a master's degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1931.

From 1929 to 1942 he was in state service as a vocational guidance and while at the University of Pennsylvania he was named a Harrison Fellow. During his career at Ursinus he received the Lindbeck Award in 1956 for excellence in teaching.

Dr. Harttall "is deeply steeped in the history and culture of the German nation," according to his friends. "He is a man from whom no one can come to realize that learning of a foreign language is not the study of a mystery of the mechanics of words but an ever-expanding absorption of the rich and varied culture of the literature.

He was the son of the late Wellington and Kathryn (Jordain) Harttall.

Surviving with his widow, who resides recently at a public school and has been a popular teacher of French, are three sons, Dr. David Harttall, Robert E. Harttall, and Stephen Harttall, and two grandchildren.

The Funeral Home, 2 Main St., Strappe, is in charge of arrangements.

Memorial gifts may be given to the George W. Harttall Memorial Fund, Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.

ProTheatre Plans

Activity at the Harpist has been on the upswing in recent weeks and many people are preparing for its production of "Romeo and Juliet," which opens in mid-February. It's an ambitious project involving about eighty members of the cast and a number of backstage and technical people.

The play is a part of the expansion of Shakespeare's tragedy of genuine talent to those "faint hearts" of the Harpist, something seems nonexistent. But Dr. Joyce Hunya, director of the Harpist, promises an "intimate production." Dr. Hunya also directs the play, which is on the stage every night for the next two weeks.

The evening收缩" turned "Would be happening responsibly"

Mr. Barra led the Ursinus administration in an interview indicating that the play, which is on the stage every night in the next two weeks, will be open to the public and will be free of charge. In order to attract a larger audience, the Harpist administration has decided to increase the number of performances and to offer a discount for groups of five or more.

Deutsches Leit un die Insche (Pennsylvania Germans and the Indians)

In one of the oldest and most prestigious periodical of the Perkiomen Valley, the Deutsches Leit und die Insche, a survey of Pennsylvania Germans and the Indians was conducted. The survey was conducted by Mr. Broadbent and his staff, who have been studying the history of the Pennsylvania Germans and the Indians for several years.

The survey was conducted in order to better understand the culture and lifestyle of the Pennsylvania Germans and the Indians, and to provide a greater understanding of the history of the region.

The survey was conducted by a team of researchers who worked with the local community to gather information on the history of the Pennsylvania Germans and the Indians. The survey was conducted in the Perkiomen Region, October 1975, and the results were published in the Deutsches Leit und die Insche, a monthly periodical of the Pennsylvania Germans and the Indians.

In 1955 I proudly departed from Ursinus with a B.S. in psychology and earned a M.A. at the University of North Carolina (Barnhart '54). Ursinus had been good to me and I was happy to begin my career. In contrast, my days at bar at the University of North Carolina (Barnhart '54) were spent in an academic quest for knowledge. Graduating with a B.A. in English, I served as a minister in the United Methodist Church and taught English and history in churches in Pretoria, Idaho, Maine, Nebraska, and Williamson (Wil­liamson '60). In 1966 I was called to the staff of the Division of Christian Education in the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries. These were the early years of the student movement, and I edited Colleague, an award win­ning magazine on education in the world of religion and ministry for which I received the highest achievement which significantly af­fected my life. As a former member for the White House Conference on Children, I spent a year visiting homes of children in Latin America and in Korea. Without knowledge we could not progress to a level where anything else of value was available to us. We

The Academy of Natural Sciences and the Miniature Camera Club are featuring "Profile '76" at the Academy, 10th, and the Parkway, on Thursday, January 15, at 8:00 p.m. The "Profile '76" is a multi-media presentation, produced by Kodak and the National Geographic Society, to co-operation with American Airlines. It highlights the sights of twelve Kodak Company photographers, who have travelled over 53,000 miles to 27 states. From Maine to Hawaii, the many faces of the United States are presented in 90 minutes that include modern-day wagon rides. They also show the pioneer pathways, a one-room schoolhouse, a modern-day yacht, a pastoral ches, and hill dancers to name a few.

A huge 36-foot screen will be filled with images from six slide productions and a movie projector. This will be timed to music with sound effects and narration. The program is presented in cooperation with Photo-Cine, 129 S. 18th St., Philadelphia.

Jobs Offered Abroad

For several years students made their way across the Atlantic through A.E.S.-Service to take part in the social life of the people in foreign countries. The success of this summer project has caused a great deal of enthusiastic interest and support both in America and Europe. Everybody seems eager for more. The program has been expanded to include many more students and jobs. Already, many students have made application for next summer jobs. American-European Student Service (a non-profitable basis) is offering these jobs to students for Germany, Scandinavia, England, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy, Spain, and the jobs consist of foreign work, child care work, janitorial work, hotel work, limited number available, construction work, and some others. More qualified jobs requiring more specialization training.

The purpose of this program is to afford the student an opportunity to get into real living contact with the people and customs of Europe. In this way, a concrete effort can be made to learn something of the culture of Europe. In return for his or her work, the student will receive his or her room and board, plus a wage. However, students should keep in mind that they will be working in the European economy and wages will naturally be scaled accordingly. The working conditions (hours, safety, regulations, legal protection, work permits) will be strictly controlled by the labor ministries of the countries involved.

In most cases, the employers have requested especially for American students. Hence, they are particularly interested in the student and want to make the work as interesting as possible.

They are all informed of the intent of the program, and will help the student all they can in driving the most from his trip to Europe. Please write for further information and application forms to: American-European Student Service, 431 South Illinois Blvd Box 3160, FL 1200 Vaduz, Liechtenstein (Europe).

The Team of the Year is in trouble. Yes, the Philadelphia 76ers, they who have emerged without the services of veteran playmakers Billy Cunningham, outscored the Boston Celtics, 116-97, in the season. Even though the Brown street dribblers are in second place in the tough Atlantic Division, Philadelphia barely got by the Celtics this past Tuesday, April 18. The 76ers won, 105-98. The Sixers have now lost six straight games. The team's top scorer, Steve Mix, an
