WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON.

January 8, 1918.

Dear Mr. Wilson:

I have your generous and patriotic letter of the 4th, renewing your offer of services in the War Department. I wish I could think of just the position, which is now open and which would enable us to take advantage of your offer, but we are really pretty well filled up. I shall, however, be glad to bring your letter to the attention to certain of my associates who may be more resourceful than I am.

Cordially yours,

Secretary of War.

Mr. Huntington Wilson,
Public Ledger,
Philadelphia, Pa.
