Dear Miss Snell:

To say "Thank you" does not seem enough for all you gave us, but how often do we fail to say even these little words.

- BUT -

I am grateful for your guidance, for the high standards you set for us, for the clever "brain teasers" and thought problems you presented to us, for the joy of living through sports, and for your confidence and inspiration.

So THANK YOU, Miss Snell,

from,
Andy
