The Editors of the Saturday Evening Post,
Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Sirs;

I submit herewith an article called "Country Above Party", which I hope you may possibly care to use. If not, I shall appreciate your returning it at your early convenience in the enclosed stamped envelope.

Aside from sixteen years in government service, including four in ^{the} office now called Under Secretary of State, at Washington, I have always been a student of politics and economics and have written three books and, long ago, a good many articles. I am an Independent Republican who voted for Roosevelt in 1932. Data may be found in "Who's Who".

I am also enclosing, purely personally, for your possible amusement, a small pamphlet of verses.

Yours faithfully
