April 24, 1909.

My dear Mr. Vandercock:

It is very kind of you to have thought of me as a delegate to the annual congress of the Sons of the American Revolution at Baltimore, at the end of this month, and I am very sorry that my duties here are so exacting that I could not engage myself to give the time.

With kind regards and many acknowledgments, I remain, always,

Yours sincerely,
