Hon. F. M. Huntington-Wilson
Woodbury, Connecticut

Dear Mr. Huntington-Wilson:

I have your letter of July 19th with enclosures which I have passed along to our National Headquarters.

I was there yesterday, and it is not their policy to amalgamate with the committee to Defend America First, inasmuch as they have found from experience that this does not work out as effectively as proceeding independently. Therefore, I am guided by the policy of National Headquarters. However, I think that we could cooperate more fully, as I know the New York National Headquarters does also with the committee to Defend America First.

Thank you for your suggestions.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,
