Fourteen Chosen For Who’s Who

Fourteen Ursinus seniors have been listed in Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for this academic year.

Five Political Science majors, Lois Steward, George Randolph, Jonathan Hayes, George Geist, and Maryanne Quartuccio; four Biology majors, Samuel Lantich, Glenn Freas, Linda Earle and Bob Fieldman; two Physical Education majors, Ann Hefferich and Judith Turner; and one Economics, Chemistry and German major each, Sandra Gabrili, Robert Simon, Diane Raczykowski were selected.

Eugene McCarthy, the "other" candidate for the presidency, the former Democratic Senator from Massachusetts, said yesterday that his candidacy "will have no impact on the election" because it is the fourth of the five candidates running this time. "I have my own campaign against the status quo," he said.

McCarthy's candidacy has generated interest among both political and academic circles. According to a recent poll, over 70% of college students favor McCarthy's candidacy.

However, McCarthy's candidacy has also been met with criticism from many Democrats who believe that his candidacy would split the anti-war vote.

"It's a good idea," commented one student, "but it's not the best idea." Another said, "It's a waste of energy for a man who has already given so much."

ELECTION EXPLAINED
To the Editor:

The area paper there has been exhaustive coverage of the presidential campaign, and most students have decided whether or not they like the sparkle of Jimmy Carter or the zest of Ford. There has also been a great deal of visibility in the Senate race between Congressman John Heinz and his Democratic opponent. What really bothers me, though, is that a lot of people are not going to go into the voting booth without knowing about any of the other candidates running for office.

For instance, this year the voters of Pennsylvania will elect a State Treasurer. Democratic incumbent Robert Casey is the outgoing treasurer, and his namesake, who was otherwise unknown in this campaign until Tuesday, is facing a Republican challenger, Betty Van Meurs. The GOP's Search is 10 years old, and has had little experience for the office. But he doesn't mean anything if you don't use it. Elections and voting privilege are important, but they don't care what happens to the country—or themselves—that they don't care what happens to the country—or themselves—that they don't care what
