July 14, 1942.

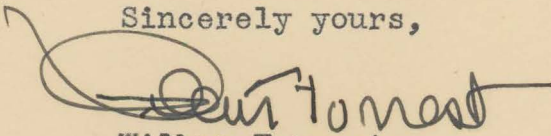

Dear Mr. Huntington-Wilson:

Permit me to commiserate on the problem of being shelved by the age limit. I have done everything possible to assume a more active role in this mess. There isn't much to be done about it, I presume, although I feel somewhat comforted that I am represented by proxy - one son in the Navy and one in the Air Corps.

It is to be a long war. We will win it the hard way.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Wilbur Forrest
