Hon. F. M. Huntington-Wilson
Hopelands,
Woodbury, Conn.

Dear Wilson:

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of July 21st, in which you were good enough to congratulate me upon the success of my book, "Diplomatically Speaking".

Please accept my warm thanks for your kindness in taking the trouble to write me.

I am glad to say that there is still a slow sale of the book, in spite of the fact that the sale now amounts to approximately 96,000.

Sir John Murray brought out an English edition last November, and this has done very well indeed, considering war conditions in England.

I am glad to learn that you are nearly finished writing your own reminiscences, and I hope I shall soon have the pleasure of reading them.

I would be very grateful if you would send me the letters which I wrote you, as they would be valuable for my records, and of very little interest to anybody else.

I would be very glad to lock you up if I find myself near Woodbury, but with the present rationing of gasoline I move about very little indeed.

I am nearing 70, but I am happy to say that I can still play two or three sets of tennis with enjoyment.

It was a pleasure to hear from you, and with every good wish, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

Richard M. Incom
