There's something in the 'parting hour*
Yet kindred, comrades, lovers, friends,
To the wild deep, or bleak frontier.
Though weak and worn, more
Where honor greets the man who wins,
There's a hero, stanch and brave,
A foe forever lurking nigh.
But truth will place his name among
Elements, one bright cerulean expanse
And lover. And now the sky grew
Gentle of anxious suspense—of deep felt
Pleasures of this world, until I see
