Dear "H.W."

You have nominated yourself Secretary of State in the Republican Administration which is to take office next year with your article in this morning's Herald Tribune. That is the synthesis and it is clear, humane, sound, sensible and right and it's about time some one were giving shape and character to our foreign policy and a foreign policy to the Government.

D.D. got your note this morning and is trying to find a place for you and will let you know. Tommy Jennings' hotel is being closed. Perhaps you could manage it from the Breckenridge Arms in Rhinebrack? No? D.D. will write.

Best to you both. Yours.

F. D.
