PROF. IRVING FISHER
460 PROSPECT STREET
NEW HAVEN, CONN.

March 1st, 1918.

Mr. Huntington Wilson,
Public Ledger,
Independence Square,
Philadelphia, Pa.

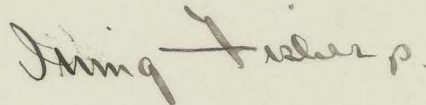

My dear Mr. Wilson:

• I am writing to acknowledge your letter of February 21st which reached New Haven during my absence from the city.

If Bagley fails you for the article on the Psychology of Education I would suggest that you try Dr. Stewart Paton, Princeton, N.J.

I shall hope to read your manuscript soon.

Very sincerely yours,

PdB

Dictated by Professor Fisher and signed by his secretary in his absence.
