Dear Mr. Huntington-Wilson,

This morning's mail brought the reprint of your article on "The Embargo and Neutrality Question" and I am very pleased to receive it. It was mere chance that I should be up here when it was published in the Herald-Tribune, else I wouldn't have seen the paper, and at the time (on the train) I cut the piece out. You have presented the question clearly, forcefully, convincingly.

I appreciate being on your mailing list for this article and to be remembered. I was indeed sorry not to have seen you and Mrs. Huntington-Wilson in Charleston last spring. Please remember me most cordially to her.

You have my kindest regards.

Cordially,

Sallie C. Carrington
