Mr. F. M. Huntington-Wilson,
Woodbury,
Connecticut.

Dear Hunt:

I read with much interest the reprint which you sent me of your letter to the Herald-Tribune about the embargo and the neutrality question. It pleased me very much to find myself in complete agreement with everything which you said, and I especially admire the clarity and vigor with which you expressed yourself. Let me congratulate you on the letter.

From all appearances the Senate is going to see the matter very much as you do. I cannot believe that there is any real question about the attitude of the House.

But I wish that I felt more confidence than I do about the outcome of the war.

Please give my very best regards to Mrs. Wilson.

Faithfully yours,

Nat Smyth
