Dear Hunt:

Sorry to have delayed answering your letter until now. I read the enclosure with great interest and I think you may know that I feel much as you do on this subject. Since that time, of course, Frank Maloney has indicated his position in favour of repeal of the arms embargo. I haven't had a chance to talk about the matter with Joe and I consequently don't know how he feels about it.

Please give my best to Mrs.
Huntington-Wilson.

Sincerely yours,

Francis Smith
