May 28, 1909.

My dear Dr. Gonzalez:

Referring to our conversation of yesterday I am obliged to fix Tuesday, June first, at ten o'clock, for the meeting which you desire to have at the Department with the representatives of the Emery Company. The reason for the change is that I recalled after you had left the fact that Monday is a national holiday, - Memorial Day.

Trusting that Tuesday morning will equally suit the convenience of Mr. Espinosa and yourself, I remain, always, with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Señor Dr. Don Pedro Gonzalez,

Minister of Nicaragua on Special Mission,

The New Willard.
