And God called the light day and He called the darkness night. And there was evening, and there was morning, one day.

Genesis 1:4-6
Every picture has its shadow
And it has some source of light
Blindness Blindness
and sight.
"Shadows and Light"
Joni Mitchell
And the parting rifts of sunlight,
As they linger soft and long,
Shed a hallowing gleam of sadness,
On our merriment and song.

"The Campus Song"
Rev. Carl G. Petrie
But if the while I think on thee,
dear friend,
All losses are restor'd, and sorrows end.
Sonnet 30
William Shakespeare
For knowledge is of things we see; And yet we trust it comes from thee, A beam in darkness; let it grow. "In Memoriam" Alfred Lord Tennyson

Hostage smiles on Presidents
Freedom scribbled in the subway
It’s like night, —
night and day.
“Shadows and Light”
Joni Mitchell
Fair is foul, and foul is fair,
Hover through the fog and filthy air.
Macbeth (Act I, iii, 62-3)
William Shakespeare
From manuscripts of moving song
Inspired by scenes and dreams unknown,
I'll pour out raptures that belong
To others, as they were my own.
"Let Me Enjoy"
Thomas Hardy
Pushmi-Pullyus are now extinct. They had no tail, but a head at each end, and sharp horns on each head. They were very shy and terribly hard to catch. No matter which way you came towards them, they were always facing you.
