Urinus Graduate Awarded

For 1972 Homecoming Nobel Prize for Medicine

Dr. Gerald M. Edelman has received the Nobel Prize for Medicine for his research in antibodies, specifically for the gamma globulin. Presently on the staff of Rockefeller Institute, he was the student of Nobel Laureate Professor Alexander Fleming in the 1930s. As a medical student, Dr. Edelman graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor of science degree, majoring in chemistry.

President William S. Pettit, who stated that Dr. Edelman has "his finger in the Nobel Prize" as he addressed the reporters, described the chemistry Nobel Prize as "outstanding." This is the first Nobel Prize awarded to a student of Thomas Jefferson University.

Dr. Edelman was born in Brussels, Belgium, in 1929. He received his M.D. in medicine from the University of Pennsylvania in 1957 and earned his Ph.D. in medical chemistry from the Institute of Medicine, a part of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Nobel Prize Committee at Rockefeller Institute said that Dr. Edelman "has been recognized for the achievements he has made in the study of antibodies and antigen molecules." He is currently working on a research project at the Institute of Molecular Medicine.

Homecoming, Dedication, And Founder's Day Scheduled Saturday

By GARY GRIFFITH

This year's Homecoming Day for the first time in the history of Ursinus College will be combined with Founders' Day.

The Founders' Day Convocation and luncheon will be held at 11:30 a.m. on October 21.

A keynote speaker for the dedication will be United States Senator George M. Murphy, who is President of the University of Pennsylvania. The current record for the Bears is 5-1, and a host of halftime ceremonies will highlight the Ursinus Band and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen.

The traditional Homecoming Day reception after the game will take place in the Helfrich Hall.

The Lambert Trophy Football Game with Eastern College will be played at 1:30 p.m. for $1.00 to 2:00 p.m., and for $1.00 to 3:00 p.m. for the staff.

Mr. Randy Davis, whose official title is Athletic Director, has many plans for Ursinus's aquatic areas. This semester he would like to begin a competitive program on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. They are also planning a program, Water Safety Instructor (WSI), to be started during the second semester. Both of these programs are vital if one is interested in becoming a WSI. The summer for qualified Lifesavers and WSI jobs is set to any swimming program.

Another innovation Mr. Davidon plans is a Men's Swimming Club. Mr. Davisson will meet all those men who would like to be the

In 1937 the Lambert Trophy for players of the year among the five-eight eligible teams, of which Ursinus College is one.
To this day, those of us with parents who went here have never figured out where those parents went to classes when the college was the size of Ursinus today. It is really hard to imagine what the college was like before the building arrived is difficult. Much as we hate to admit it, the imagination, it seems in this case, will take some time to become accustomed.

But buildings alone do not make a college; it is as the words indicate, a group of people. One thing at Ursinus which seems to have changed is the academic reputation of its students and graduates which, as shown by the lead story of this issue, seems to remain fairly high.

Another unchanging aspect of the school is the dedication of its Board of Directors, Administration, Faculty, and Alumni.

And so upon the occasion of this Founders’ Day—Dedication—Homecoming Day, The Weekly speaking for all Ursinus students would like those concerned, and they all know who they are, to acknowledge their efforts; and even if at most points in the past they seem to have heard more complaining than appreciation (and no doubt will continue to do so), that no less than at once we stopped to say thank you. Thank you.

S. F. A. R. C. Committee

On Tuesday, October 10, 1972 elections for three student openings on the Student-Faculty-Administration Relations Committee were held in the Parents Lounge after lunch. Cindy Martin, Dave Friedenberg, and Carol Clark were elected out of the seven candidates running. In addition, Linda Mills was re-appointed by the USGA President.

The purpose of SFARC is to promote better understanding among the students, faculty and administration. The committee is made up of three students nominated by petition and selected by large, one student nominated by the USGA President, three faculty members elected by the faculty in the spring, two members of the administration selected by the President, and a member of the Board of Directors of Ursinus College appointed yearly. The committee meets four times a semester and can be convened at any time upon the request of three members. It is the only all-school representative council. As soon as the seeming demise of its sibling, the Student Life Committee, the SFARC members: Dave Friedenberg and Cindy Martin (Carol Clark not pictured).

Myrin Library Opens New Listening Room

After eleven long months, the listening room in Myrin Library opened to the campus this semester. The new facility, which is based on the cassette format, was provided through the generosity of family and friends of the late Mr. Mary Mendelson, assistant librarian at Ursinus.

The room is equipped with twelve players, each of which can accommodate two people, are located in the Spangler Listening Room on the second floor. Anyone wishing to use the listening room should contact the circulation desk with his L.D. card. Upon presenting his card, which will be held until all equipment is returned, the person will receive a pair of headphones, the cassette he requests, and an appropriate printed material. These items are then to be taken upstairs to the listening room.

The material recorded on the cassettes at this time is predominately music and literature. The library is actively purchasing recordings of items suggested on several basic music course lists and is trying to increase the library’s holdings of curriculum related materials. While the collection is quite small and unbalanced at this time, eventually all fields will be represented.

The material that the library wishes to acquire for its collection is either unavailable on commercially produced records or has never been recorded. For that reason, although some items are commercially purchased, the majority of the cassettes in the collection are being taped from records or original music. Records are copyrighted material, and since copyright laws for recorded material are at best ambiguous and as yet untested in the courts, it has been necessary to write to various recording companies for permission to use their records. It is this operation which has so long delayed the opening of the listening room, but the results of the correspondence have been gratifying. Two-thirds of the companies solicited have granted permission, but have done so with some restrictions, the most unfortunate of which demands that only one tape of any record be made and that the tape copy not be allowed to leave the library.

As convenient as the restriction is the library’s taping program depends upon the material which it is permitted to tape, and it cannot in any way circumvent the restrictions which accompany the permissions granted by the record companies.

The library welcomes suggestions for the purchase of records, with the understanding that the above restrictions will have to be strictly enforced, and it is hoped that everyone in the college community will make use of the new facility for both recreation and enhancement.
FIDLER ON THE WAX

By JOHN FIDLER

The summer of ’72, the greatest summer of my life (or so I was writing and playing some hot ‘n’ nasty music). The world of pop music. The summer of my life, the birth of Foghat. The group that brought some great releases two years later. Tony Stevens (bass) and Roger Earl (drums) complete the line-up that became Foghat during their stay at college, The Turtles. This group had the necessary information available. Earlier this month, letters that read, “Dear Sirs,” opened the door to the companies that were in the music business. The Turtles, a hit making machine, was a hit making machine. The group was interested in demo tapes, adhering to the Philadelphia Sound. The summer of ‘72. The group was in a midweek service at 7:30 on Thursday.

Ursinus Admits 308 Freshmen: Campus Rumors Unfounded

During the course of last year, the Admissions Office received approximately thirteen hundred applications from students wishing to enter Ursinus in the fall of 1972. This was a drop of approximately one thousand from the previous year’s total. Admissions accepted increased by 150, and the number of places they had. Freshmen have received the special commendation, “The Honors Program,” which has only the top 3 or 4 percent of students in their class. Ninety-eight freshmen started the year as biology majors. This is still the most popular major, followed by political science, health and psychology.

The sophomore class was initiated in 1971, and the junior class in 1970. The total number of students now at the college is 418.

The fall of 1972 was a year of great change at Ursinus. The average age of the entering class was 18.8. This is a much younger group than previous years. "Butterflies Are Free" In Review

By NANCY FRYE

Today's movies are full of violence and sex. It's really getting to be monstrous, because even the movie advertisements in the papers are filled with it. When I saw the advertisement for "Butterflies Are Free," I wondered if it was mod¬ erately intriqued because the title sophisticated word. But I was wrong. I decided that I had finally found a film that would not use violence, drugs, or sex, and I was very excited to find out—and I was not disappointed.

"Butterflies Are Free," directed by Milton Kates, is the story of Donna, played by Eileen Heckart, and Jill, played by Albert Finney. Donna is a middle-aged actress who has just arrived in an elite suburb of San Francisco to rent a small apartment in the

was on the border of San Francisco to rent a small apartment in the downtown of the city. There he meets Jill, played by Goldie Hawn, who is a drug addict. He is attracted to her, and they spend a lot of time together. Donna tries to help Jill, but Jill is not interested in the help. She wants nothing to do with the outside world.

The play is excellent. The actors are superb. Goldie Hawn is a remarkable actress. She captures the essence of the character perfectly. Albert Finney is also excellent. He brings a depth to the role of Jill that is rare in modern theatre.

The film is a triumph. It is a major work of art. The script is witty and insightful. The direction is impeccable. The acting is flawless. The sets are beautiful. The film is a masterpiece. It is a film that will be remembered for many years to come.

The film is not for everyone. It is a film that will polarize audiences. Some will love it. Some will hate it. But it is a film that everyone should see at least once. It is a film that will challenge your beliefs and make you think.

The film is a major accomplishment. It is a work of art that will be studied and admired for many years to come. It is a film that will stand the test of time. It is a film that will be remembered.
Urinsus Soccer: Fans Love It?

By RICK HAYT

At noon on Saturday this reporter was walking past the stadum old-baggers with the Connecticut Daily News on the football field. Already preparations were being made for the annual dorm room extravaganza. It was Homecoming Day—banners of school colors were strung across the expanse of the dorm windows. The roof was turned up, and the roofers were in high gear. A feeling of expectation was in the air. In a few short hours gridiron gladiators would clash, to the delight of millions of hourglass fans.

For the few fans present viewing of sporting events was over for the day. The reader may ask, "How could he be the main attraction has not yet begun." Absolutely true, but I had witnessed the un-amateur attraction of the day, the Urinsus vs. Muhlenberg soccer game.

As I approached the concession stand at one of the stands I met Mr. Emmett Bailey, Director of Athletics, Urinsus College. Hi, Mr. Bailey, I said, "How was the game?" Mr. Bailey said, "The soccer game was an excellent time due to gusty winds and enthusiasm of the fans."

Looking in the distance I was pleased to see King's and Scranton; in a double dual meet held at King's Park in Kingston, not far away from the Kings College campus in Wilkes-Barre. The scores speak by 41; Ursinus 15.

Pizza Maker Fifth

Vince Phillips, student-runner by day and pizza maker at night at seven a.m.,I had a strong heart. I was not until the middle of the second half that all American Bear runners were over the halfway mark, usually living up to his newly acquired nickname, "Guacamole." But other Bear thumpers had a harder time. Although Ursinus' game was 4 good for 15th position.

But other Bear thumpers had a harder time. Although Ursinus' game was 4 good for 15th position.
